Mrs. Louis Graham and her sister, Mrs. Clifton Ault, were visiting in Oxford last Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hardy and their youngest son, from Norway, were Thursday evening guests of Mr. Hardy's mother, Mrs. Walter Rehman.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, of Farmington Road, visited in Indiana for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault and daughter, Mrs. George Cooke, with her son, Richard; also Mrs. Norbert Schmidt and children, Gwendolene and Roger, left for Indiana last Wednesday to attend funeral services for Mrs. Ault's aunt, near Columbus City. All returned Friday morning except Gwendolene Schmidt and her aunt, Mrs. Ault, who remained for a ten day visit with her mother, Mrs. Jacob Sheets, who has been very ill.

Mrs. Charles L. Funk received word Friday afternoon of the death of her only brother, who had recently visited her. Mr. and Mrs. Funk left Sunday to attend the funeral in southern Ohio.

Virginia and Robert Woods, from Inkster, were guests last week of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault.

Mrs. Howard Middlewood underwent a major operation at the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital last Monday. She is reported convalescing satisfactorily.

Robert Hoffman, who, with his family, moved from Shadyside Avenue, West Point Park, to Arizona several years ago, was calling on the Arthur Muirs Monday evening of last week. The Hoffmans recently returned to Michigan and, for the time being, are residing with an aunt at Harbor Beach.

Miss Joyce Varhol, of Detroit, was visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol, last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and their three daughters, from Clarita Avenue, left Thursday morning for Uniontown, Ohio. Mrs. Johnson and children expected to visit in and around Akron for two weeks; but Mr. Johnson planned to accompany his cousin, Harold Stevin of Akron, on a week's vacation in Canada.

Pat, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Middlewood, is spending a couple of weeks with his grandparents in southern Michigan.

Mrs. J. C. Dunnam, of Farmington Road, gave a luncheon last week for Mr. and Mrs. John Mercey, of Seven Mile Road. The Mer-ceys will soon have everything in readiness for their removal to California.

Mrs. Willet, from Detroit, was the Sunday guest of Cecil Willet and family.

Mrs. Howard Middlewood returned home from Detroit Osteopathic Hospital Sunday afternoon.

Terry McMillan, of Detroit, was the Friday guest of his grandmother, Mrs. I. J. Magner.

Mrs. Emerson Ault is leaving this Monday with her brother's family, the Carl Borlenghs of Detroit, on a trip to Niagara.

Esther Mae McPeters, of Hubbard Avenue, has returned home from a vacation visit with her grandparents in Detroit.

Mrs. McLane, widow of the late Dr. McLane, was out from Bedford during the week to visit old neighbors on Seven Mile Road.

The Kenneth Allen children, who have all been quite ill, are now able to be out again.

Gordon Vance has spent much time the last few days in Ann Arbor Hospital prior to the death of a brother-in-law Sunday morning.

Mary Lou and Jackie Ackerson, from Detroit, were week end guests of their grandmother, Mrs. James Simpson.

The Barnes, of Farmington Road, enjoyed a family reunion at their home Sunday. Mr. Barnes had relatives visiting from as far away as New Jersey.

Mrs. Claude Brown, of Bretneyer Street, is convalescing from a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sandau were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smith in Detroit last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Altama went to Tecumseh, Indiana, last week end.

Miss Joanne Willet was a guest at a 7th birthday celebration for Miss Pamela Sizeland, near Farmington, last Wednesday afternoon. The Sizelands formerly resided on Mayfield Avenue. Miss Joanne celebrated her birthday Sunday.

Neighborhood Sunshine Sisters held their regular meeting in the Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. Attendance was fair. A discussion on "Budgeting" proved interesting. Much time was taken planning activities in preparation for the holiday season, when it is feared there may be many needy families in the community. The next Sunshine meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, September 7. Mrs. Cecil Willet will provide refreshments for the occasion.
