That sharp, fresh current of premature winter kindly departed in time for a full, fun-packed Labor Day week end. And residents of this area seem to have taken advantage of their last summertime fling.

Among the departed were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hallcock and son, David, who visited friends at Ludington. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ferris left Dresden Street behind them Friday for a bus trip to Wall Lake, Canada. There they spent a lively week end with four grandchildren at the farm home of their daughter, Mrs. Mercedes Davis. Miss Roberta Beech of Clark Street accompanied them.

Earl Hensley came from Port Lauderdale, Florida, to visit his friends, the Carlton Harbours family, of 28924 List. Their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Busco were well-coming guests from Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rast. Relatives from Wisconsin Rapids arrived to inspect the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ulrich, who moved to 29204 Eight Mile recently from Royal Oak. Of course, two-year-old Kathryn and four-year-old Kurt were special attractions, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Don Weil of Havelock, Ontario, spent the week end at the Russell Ellis home at 29245 List.

A steak and corn roast at his backyard grill was the high point of the week end for the Vern Hawley family of 21125 Middlebelt. Detroit relatives were there to help celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Hawley's sister, Mrs. Helen Craft. Besides a home-baked birthday cake, we understand there was cherry and blueberry pie as well, so the party must have been a success.

The Charles Grose family of 29217 List are back from a vacation in Missouri, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold House of Roosevelt are reminiscing about that trip to Pike's Peak they enjoyed during their recent trip to Colorado Springs vacation. Their two children spent the week visiting an aunt in Lapere.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vesey of Detroit will soon have a new address, 29223 Dresden, for they have purchased that home from Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith. The Smiths and their two children, Joy Louise and Allen C., are leaving after seven years in this neighborhood to return to their home town, Kalamazoo. They have purchased a large, triple lot near there and Mr. Smith plans to start building their new home very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Matrella and daughter, Mary Carol, soon will be moving into their newly-purchased home on Memorial Street in Detroit. They have been living at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harbour, of List Street, since last April.

Anxious to get his family moved to this neighborhood is Jack Eaton, of Port Huron, who spent his Labor Day week end working on the new house he's building on Middlebelt Road, near Scotland. Mr. Eaton does contracting work in Detroit and gets out nearly every evening to work on his own home. He doesn't expect to have it completed until next year, he tells us.

If you haven't attended the State Fair, perhaps you would like to be there tomorrow, Friday, and hear our band from Chippewasville High perform. Its 50 members will occupy the band shell from 3 to 3:30 p.m. and they have practiced hard all summer toward this appearance. Their majorettes will be competing in the State contests, also.

Mrs. Walter McGuire of Fair Lawn, New Jersey, is visiting her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Button, 24600 Twelve Mile Road.

Harry and Helen White and Donald Howard drove down to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center Saturday night to visit Seaman Re-erut Alma Rose Wadenstorer. They returned home Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Morris of 20410 Farmington Road, motor-ed to Chatham and Wallaceburg, Canada. They left Saturday and returned Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coon of 26200 Grand River entertained as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Bradley and sons, Pat and Dean. Mr. and Mrs. Don Bichel of 28104 Farmington Road, left Friday noon for East Tawas for the week end. They planned to return Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Green were hosts at a very lovely birthday party in honor of five birthdays which all fell on the same day. The birthdays celebrated were those of both the Green's fathers, who are—Mr. Arthur Green of Walled Lake and Mr. George Moore. Their son George Green and Mrs. Green's brother, Jasper Moore, and their aunt, Mrs. Carey Post of Walled Lake were among the 22 guests present. Luncheon was served on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rexin and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Drouillard motored to West Branch for the holiday week end to visit their daughter and sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Reo Haggadone.

Ah, we discovered talent to the tune of little Jackie Howard who is just 5 years old. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Howard of 26635 Haledale Road is following in the footsteps of her grandmother, Mrs. Floyd Howard. She will sing in an amateur show September 11 at 7 p.m. at the Edgewood School.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coon were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ward of Lansing.

Mr. Kenneth Siler and son, Ken-ny, and Gino Caravale went to Briggs Stadium Wednesday night to see the Tigers play a night game with the Boston Red Sox. Gino was pretty thrilled as it was his first trip to a big league game. He never imagined it would be so wonderful. He said despite the rain he enjoyed every minute of it. To make the evening perfect, the Tigers won.

Week end visitors of the Stanley Gates of 26499 Drake Road were
