By MRS. ROBERT KOOP

Mr. and Mrs. Wrexson just returned from a visit with Mrs. Wrexson's sister, Mrs. Kleinmichmidt, at Duluth, Minnesota.

Mrs. Lewis Gillette and her baby daughter visited her aunt, Mrs. Charles Halliker, Thursday.

Mrs. Leo Giegler and daughter, and Mrs. Lawrence Giegler, of Hartland, called on the latter's mother, Mrs. Edith Graham, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Rogers Green spent Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green.

Pvt. Elmer See spent one day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer See. He returned his car to his home after his wedding trip. He will return to Camp McCoy, where he is stationed with the Airborne troops.

James A. Garfield, who died at 49, lived the shortest life of any U. S. President.

Clarenceville News

MRS. HENRY TROUTEAU

By this time all our small fry are excited over that first day of school. We have our new gym at long last, too.

Speaking of the new gym: remember the date, September 26. A dance and community get-together are to be held at the new gym that date. The recreational project, under the sponsorship of a council composed of representatives of each service club, has done a good job so far and deserves our support.

The Lutheran School has had a new floor and redecorating job done, and was all ready to open September 7. Mr. Graf is the principal, Mrs. Pawitt teaches the lower grades.

The building program going on at Clarenceville Methodist Church is beginning to make quite a difference in the looks of both the inside and the outside of the structure.

The original Mothers' Club of Clarenceville met for a pot luck and an hour of cards at the home of Mrs. Calvin, in honor of Jean McDonald's birthday. Lunch was served and a good time was had by all.

The Rebecca's held their first meeting of the year Thursday, September 8, at the I.O.O.F. Hall on Inkster Road. They have a card party every Thursday afternoon at the hall, too.

Mrs. Cummings of 18420 Deering Road has been home-bound for a couple of weeks because of a leg infection. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings also had company over the weekend; Mr. and Mrs. Don Nickles of East Detroit.

Mrs. Edna Dohany, of 28425 Nine Mile Road, also had company. Her son-in-law from California visited her Wednesday of last week. She also entertained a group of women on Sunday; Mrs. Sybil Hastings, Mrs. Ethel VanKinklyn, Mrs. Maud Flaegher, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Lulu Forsyth. On Friday evening a few of her old friends, Mrs. Elizabeth Nette, Mrs. Jennie Zebornic and Mrs. Betty Retter were guests for dinner.

Mr. Harold Horton is taking a vacation of six weeks. He and his son are going on an extended trip in his new Hudson, first to Paducah, Kentucky, to see Mr. Horton's mother, then on to New Mexico to visit his daughter, Wilma, her husband and their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Welton of 19376 Deering Road have just returned from Florida. They had some hair-raising experiences with the hurricane. They stayed in the little town of Fort Ricker, just a short way from Clearwater. They had a freight train overhead. Because the worst winds were thirty feet above the ground, Mr. Welton be sure and clip the tops off gladioli and remove them from the bed a few days before digging the corns. MSC specialists say that will prevent carrying over any disease that's in the tops over in the bulbs to be planted next year.

In a sheltered spot and watched the big several feet deep on the wind tear up huge palm trees like toothpicks. The wind blew the palm nuts through billboards, demolishing large boats and piled debris.
