American Milkmaid Makes Friends Overseas

Audrey Bowman, Ohio farm girl center, is one of thousands of American girls who have made friends of needy children around the globe by contributing milk and other farm commodities, through the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP).

Last year Americans gave 75,688,000 pounds of farm commodities through CROP. Included in this amount were 4,470,000 pounds of milk. This food, distributed in 22 countries, principally to children, widows, the aged, and the ill has done much to promote world-wide goodwill and Christian brotherhood.

During the present harvest season CROP officials expect to assemble Friendship Food trains in 50 agricultural areas. CROP is sponsored by Catholic Rural Life, Church World Service, and Lutheran World Relief.

CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

Mrs. Henry Troutaud
Phone Farm. 1038

Our first affair in the new gym went off with a bang. A wonderful square dance, a good crowd and plenty of good food served in the science room. The ones who served did a fine job. Plovers banked the stage and the floor was perfect. It is grand to have a place for our community doings. Speaking of community doings: the first P.T.A. meeting was held on Tuesday, the 26th. There was a fine showing and spirit. A talk by Charlene Swarthout was given on the purposes, objectives and ideals of education in a democracy.

She also played a recording of the first day of school for a kindergarten teacher, which, to say the least, was illuminating. New teachers were introduced and we heard our school on S. Mile had its face lifted, corridors have new lighting and they have installed a new boiler. The Edgewood school has had many new improvements including a painting job.

Our High School now has a separate library; two separate rooms have been made of the study hall. A shop has been added. All in all, we should be well pleased at the way things are shaping up in our school system. You folks who haven't been coming to the meetings, come the second Tuesday of each month.

Speaking of improvements, the Woman's Society of the Clarenceville Methodist Church have just given the church a beautiful new 10 burner, 2 oven stove. Just in time, too. They had a luncheon for the benefit of the building fund on Monday. An organ recital by Wilma Hood, the capable choir director for the church, and special music was featured.

The choir from the Salem Evangelical Church was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bolitho of 29212 Waldron on Tuesday evening. Arthur Bolitho, their son, is the choir director.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mullen spent an enjoyable evening Sunday. George belongs to the Metropolitan Barber Shop Chorus. They were featured at the Detroit Institute of Arts. George Mullen participated. It was fine entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ritter, on Base Line Road, spent Thursday and Friday at Fort Huron visiting their son and his family. They also entertained house guests over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gattiker of Pleasant Ridge.

The Edgewood Mothers' Club gave a card party at the home of Mrs. Pret on Wednesday. A dessert luncheon was served.

The John Lewis's, having poured a kitchen floor, are doing their cooking and eating in the living room for a day or so.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Davis of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones of Detroit, and Arthur Matto from Detroit were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stevens on St. Francis during the week end.

Mrs. A. LaMontagne from Parkville and her daughter, Marlon, spent Saturday in Detroit with dinner and a show. Mrs. LaMontagne has been in bed with flu for a few days.

Mrs. Clyde S. Klehm was honored with a baby shower given by Mrs. Shoemaker. The neighbors went together and gave her a whole layette and lots of other nice things. Prizes were given and a beautiful buffet lunch was served.
