Salem Bake Sale Reaches Goal

The Women's Guld of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church is breathing easier these days. The October first bake sale sponsored by the church has assured funds for a new range.

A large part of the venture's success was due to the contributors in the community who supported the sale. Cash received amounted to $78.45, with more donations still to come in.

Conroy's Market the Farmington Bakery, and the Edison Company were also responsible for the sale's success.
