Mrs. Homer Coolman, Mrs. Ernest Tallman, Mrs. Russell Ault, and Freda Ault represented the Livonia Township Health Guild in a visit to the Wayne County Training School Thursday afternoon.

Howard Middlewood's Boy Scout troop held a camp-out near Brighton last week end.

Mrs. William Griffith, from Dearborn, was the week end guest of her mother, Mrs. E. W. Stange. Together they called on the Judas, near Grasse Pointe, Saturday.

Mrs. Roy Dent from Detroit was the Wednesday evening dinner guest of her daughter, Mrs. Sandau. Mrs. McMillan, of Detroit, spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Tra Magner.

Miss Ina Mae Talman, from Royal Oak, spent Friday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman.

Mr. and Mrs. Gamble are again with their daughter, Mrs. Immonen. Pastons have moved from Hubbard Avenue to Detroit and now the children are in possession of the property they vacated.

Edwin L. Johnson, of Clarita Avenue, has been ill most of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Forest Ault and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roberts and children in Monroe Saturday evening.

A brush demonstration party provided entertainment Friday at a luncheon party at the home of Mrs. E. W. Stange. Freda Ault acted as hostess. A dozen ladies participated in the affair. Each guest had been requested to arrive wearing a home-concocted hat. The autumn and vegetable leaf creation worn by Mrs. Ira Magner took first prize. Following the program, luncheon was served. Since Mrs. Stange is leaving about October 22 for Arizona, the party took on the nature of a farewell for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Morris from Mackinac City, were calling last Monday on their cousin, Mrs. George Welsh.

In the hospital at Ypsilanti, a six pound, five ounce baby girl was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer, of Wayne. Mrs. Spencer is the former June Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance, Mayfield Avenue.

Mrs. Steve Martin and her two children, from East Detroit, were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Welsh.

Three year old Edward Brugman wandered away from his parents' home on Mayfield Friday and examined some melted lead with which a neighbor was working. The burns on his hands will soon be forgotten.

Mrs. Cecelia Chevalier from Detroit was the Sunday, guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Welsh.

Mrs. Gordon Vance was visiting her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Spencer and Julia, in Ypsilanti Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, from Mt. Pleasant, were week end guests of the Danamans on Farmington Road.

Mrs. Farm of Farmington Road left recently for a two months stay in Florida. She was accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Ray Reese.

Jackie and Mary Lou Anderson, of Detroit, were week end guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Simpson, and other Mayfield Avenue relatives.

Bobby Melvin of Parker Avenue has improved sufficiently to return to school. He has suffered an ear infection for two weeks.

Mrs. John Varhol and Mrs. Wilbur Dixon were in Detroit Wednesday evening attending a bridal shower for Mrs. Varhol's daughter, Joyce, whose marriage to George Ring will take place October 29. The affair was held at the home of Mr. Ring's aunt, Mrs. Steck.

Little Ina Mae, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman, has been ill with a throat infection.

Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong attended a meeting of the Coteria Club last Friday.

The Sunshine Sisters held a "Christmas Workshop" meeting in the Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. Cake and tea were served by Mrs. Stanley Cha-vey. The next meeting will take the form of a potluck luncheon to be held in a church at 1 p.m. Wednesday, October 19. Tea and coffee will be provided, but ladies should bring their own silver and dishes along with the food they wish to contribute. This get-together will honor Mrs. E. W. Stange on her birthday.

The Neighborhood Bible School again announces Rally Day, which will be held Sunday, October 23.

Autumn Colors Draw Tourists To State Parks

Lure of autumn coloring, nature's own show on display in 40 state parks and 13 state-owned recreation areas, is the fall attraction re-creating interest in the state's play-spots which already have attracted 12,400,000 persons through September.

Although most summer park activities have all but faded from the picture, park officials of the conservation department now are confident that the 1949 attendance total will at least equal if not exceed the 1948 record year of 12,500,000 visitors.

Among the upper peninsula parks offering a generous exhibition of nature at her best are Tahquamenon Falls, Porcupine Mountains, Fort Wilkins, Gogebic Lake and Baraga. Shorter color tours beckoning outdoor enthusiasts are in such natural beauty parks as Warren Dunes, Muskegon, Ledington, Wilderness and Hartwick Pines.

Comparatively new recreation areas operated by the conservation department in southern Michigan, within a short driving distance of metropolitan centers are: Yankee Springs, Waterloo, Pontiac Lake, Proud Lake, Island Lake, Highland, Ortonville, Brighton and Pinckney.

The Merrill Whites on Power are entertaining their little grandsons while their daughter, Mrs. Greeves, is convalescing from her recent illness at Reese, Michigan.

Good coffee can be made only in a clean pot. Cleanse with a baking soda solution frequently and rub glass around well in the seams, spout and lid.
