The weatherman says no. The week end weather wasn't true Indian summer at all, but a record-breaking mid-July in October. . . . Since the drenching rains of a week ago resembled April, according to schedule October weather should be here soon. . . . And even though the leaves have chased off quickly, we're still planning on a genuine Indian summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ward of 21402 Jacksonville capitalized on Sunday to prove the "rich beauty of Richmond Gardens." Their guests, directors of the Southeast Civic Association and their wives, munched on autumn apples, while enjoying the "summer" weather. The Wards brought out their lawn furniture and umbrellas again and President Fred Westlake kept the meeting mostly social. Others there were Mr. Harry Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thornton, and Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Summerill.

Those famous chicken dinners at Frankenmuth were the destination Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haxley and son Gary of 23230 Scotten. They were accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Lena Haxley of Detroit, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gabel of Plymouth.

The Maurice Waack family at 22215 Scotten made the most of their summer-like week end with a trip to Mio, Michigan. Mrs. Waack didn't want to miss her annual high school alumni banquet.

Miss Helen Bury of 22218 List is back home after a two-month visit in Virginia. The Bury home is wearing a new roof now, and the Burys are glad they waited until October to acquire it for a spark from their chimney started the old roof blazing last week. Boy Scout Bob Bury was alert to the starting fire and with neighbor Fred Westlake they made a snappy and successful firemen team.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold House of Roosevelt Street will be saying goodbye tomorrow to their uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. Joel Harmon, of New Carlisle, Ohio. The Harmons were here for three weeks.

Home seems mighty quiet now to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harbourne of 23924 List, since their daughter Carol and her husband, Bernard Martelle, moved to their new home at 9224 Memorial in Detroit last Saturday. Most regrettable departing baggage was the Harbourne's 14 month old granddaughter, Mary Carol. The place will brighten up again, though, in about two weeks when grandson Tommy Harbourne moves in. Tommy is just two months old and his parents, Bob and Donna Harbourne, have been staying with Donnie's.

WEST FARMINGTON

By Mrs. SARAH KNAPP

Mrs. Roland Green entertained eleven people Thursday evening at an officers' meeting of the West Farmington Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barber of Birmingham called on Mrs. Charles Heller Sunday.

Mrs. Edith Graham, 82, attended the Oldsters' party given by the Rotary Club of Walled Lake at the Stoneycrest Clubhouse. Ten ladies over 75 years old were guests of honor. Mrs. Adella Richeson was the oldest lady present. She is 91 years old. Toastmistress was Imogene Dickson of Farmington, organizer of the club forty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Olay and daughter, of Detroit, called on the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. Anna Westlake and Mrs. Edith Savinina. While Mrs. Alden Green is ill at Pontiac General Hospital, son Steven is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer See and daughter Susan is living with her aunt in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Gilbert and son Gili spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Micle Muzic and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green Saturday evening.

Mrs. Edith Graham received word that her daughter, Mrs. Mattle Dabehor has returned from the hospital. She is at her home at Walled Lake.

Closed Lake Trout Seasons Start October 10

The annual closed seasons on lake trout in Michigan waters of Lakes Superior and Michigan started this week, the conservation department is reminding commercial fishermen.

In Lake Superior the season will be closed from noon, October 10 to noon, November 4, and in Lake Michigan from noon, October 10 to noon, November 10. Lake Huron season now is closed through noon, October 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gottschalk and family visited the former's mother at Mt. Clemens Sunday. Later in the day they drove to New Haven to call on Mrs. Gottschalk's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Peter McClelland. Mrs. McClelland is recovering from a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lukefahr and family, of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ber, of Birmingham, enjoyed an outdoor weller road at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lukefahr Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Hults and daughter Mary returned Saturday afternoon from a trip in the east.

where they visited many points of interest including Mt. Vernon, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the U. S. Capitol, Library of Congress, Washington Monument, and other spots in Washington. They drove south to Virginia Beach at Norfolk and then on to Williamsburg and home by way of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Mr. Robert Hill of Royal Oak called on his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Hill, Sunday.

Several neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Price tendered them a surprise farewell party at their home on Saturday evening. Cards were played during the evening and a co-operative lunch was served. The Prices are leaving this week end for Pennsylvania, where Mr. Price has accepted a position on a large dairy farm. Among guests were the Frank Dunhams, the Otto Willys, the Gottschalks, Walter Millers and Mrs. Bertha Franklin and sons, Ival and Harold.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bremmer and daughter, former Farmington residents, left Wednesday for New York to make their home. Prior to their departure, Mrs. R. E. Dunbar of Haggerty Highway entertained Mrs. Bremmer at a luncheon at the Sea Food Grotto.

Mrs. George Sandau and children, Shirley, Frankie and Linda, of Hubbard Avenue, were luncheon guests of Mrs. Lyman Bush and son Paul Thursday. Mrs. Sandau and Mrs.

Bush shared the same room at Mt. Carmel Hospital, under the care of the same physician, during the arrival of their young sons.

Come Look at All Three with Dynaflo Drive

ONLY one make of car in all the land can give you the sweet 'n' easy luxury of Dynaflo Drive!— and that's Buick.

But look how much territory that takes in—how many different-sized budgets can now afford the only drive with neither a clutch pedal nor gears that shift.

You can have Dynaflo as optional equipment on the tidy, sparkling new Buick SPECIAL, with its traffic-handly size, stepped-up roominess, and bold new front-end treatment.

You can have it, again as optional equipment, on the neat and nimble SUPER, with its sleek lines, 110 or 120 horsepower Fireball power plant, and triple Ventiports.

And of course Dynaflo is standard equipment on that best buy among fine cars, the magnificent ROADMASTER. There it combines, with matchless ride, the stirring lift of 150 Fireball horsepower and truly regal size and bearing.

So look at the SPECIAL, the SUPER and ROADMASTER, three Buicks that match almost any price range you have in mind—and remember that all of them offer the added enjoyment of Dynaflo Drive.

On every one it is the same silky, sweet-handling delight. On every one it cuts driving effort to the minimum, takes tension out of traffic, brings you to the end of day-long drives with surprising freshness and relaxation.

Sooner or later we predict that you'll join the army of car owners who wouldn't think of passing up what Dynaflo has to offer.

Why be among the late-comers? Your Buick dealer will be tickled to show you how quickly and how easily you can have Dynaflo to enjoy—right now!

BUICK alone has all these features

Silk-smooth DYNAFLO DRIVE* • FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area • SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access • "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Cradle cushions • Buoyant-riding QUADRUFLUX COIL SPRING • Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-BIGHT POWER with SELF-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS (Dynaflo Models) plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS • Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS • Double-Duty VENTIPORTS • DUREX BEARINGS, main and connecting rods • BODY BY FISHER

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.
