Beth El Sponsors Art Auction

Works of art by Dali, Miro, Mercier and other well-known artists will go on the auction block in a benefit for Temple Beth El at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, March 24. The auction and exhibit will be held in the Hillside Day School, 32200 Middlebelt (between 14 Mile and Northwestern), Farmington. A champagne preview at 7:30 p.m. precedes the event.

The Married Group of the temple is sponsoring the auction and proceeds will go to the temple building fund. Mr. and Mrs. Redrick Simon of Southfield are the chairmen. Tickets are available in advance, for a donation of $1 each, from the Simons, 20245 Winchester, Southfield. They will also be available at the door.

More than 200 original oils, sculpture, graphics, etchings and watercolors will be sold. Starting prices will range from $10 to $2,000.

Area Musicians Will Be Invited To Perform

Amusements

A monthly concert featuring youngsters between the ages of nine and 16 is among the projects being planned by those interested in forming a Livonia Muscale.

The new group will be a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs, as in the Farmington Muscale and the Tuesday Muscale of Detroit.

It will hold its charter meeting in Schoolcraft College at 8 p.m., Friday, March 22. All interested persons, performers and non-performers who are interested in music, are invited to meet in F-130, the Forum Building, on the campus, 18600 Schoolcraft, Livonia.

There will be a short introductory business meeting, and then, as is the musical custom, there will be a short concert.

Rosemary Jackson, popular Livonia soprano, will be the featured artist.

Mrs. Richard Shannon of Detroit, district vice president of the federation of music clubs, will be at the meeting.

Plans for the club's formation and projects have been discussed over the past month by Mrs. Robert Cascaden, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Clyde Mehr, Mrs. Sean Purtill, Mrs. Richard Doran and Mrs. Nelson Umble.

The once-a-month children's concerts will be called Musicales Matinees, and will be arranged by Mrs. Purtill.

The musicale's regular meetings will give adult musicians in the community the opportunity to perform.

Planners are also hoping to have an opera section, and to support Livonia bands and orchestras as well as the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The aims and programs of the national organization include such things as the awarding of many scholarships, festivals of all sorts, promoting musical activities in the armed forces, folk music research, composition contests and sponsorship of the work of American women composers.

Yiddish Show Set

"Lebedik Un Yiddish," a program of Yiddish and Hebrew songs, skits, monologues and humorous ensembles, will be presented at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, March 24, in the Oak Park High School Auditorium.

The concert is being sponsored by the Labor Zionist Alliance of Metropolitan Detroit, 28555 Middlebelt, Farmington, and the Workers Circle Organization, 18049 W. Seven Mile, Detroit. Tickets are on sale at the headquarters of both organizations.
