

Madonna Tells Term Offerings

Registration for term III-A (spring, 1973) at Madonna College is scheduled for Monday, April 2 and Wednesday, April 18 from 9 to 11 a.m., 1 to 3 and 7 to 9 p.m. Madonna is at 3650 Schoolcraft, Livonia.

High school students who wish to pursue college courses and earn college credit before graduation may also register on these dates at the times specified. High school students pay $10 per college credit before graduation may also register on these dates at the times specified.

Innovative programs and trends mark the new term at Madonna. Several courses that will be offered are also Madonna "firsts."

In the field of criminal justice, (also offered under sociology and political science 201), is the new "criminal justice organization and administration" course, offered on Wednesday nights from 7 to 10 p.m. This course will run from April 30 to July 27, and carries four credits.

The home economics and family life department will offer a workshop on sewing for the family from May 7 to June 15. The four credit course will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:30 to 10 p.m.

English history, "Revolution in the 20th Century" (English 456 and history 466) will be offered on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7 to 10 p.m. This course will run from May 1 to June 1, and carries four credits.

Independent study and cooperative projects may be arranged.

Courses in this term are offered in various divisions both during the day and in the evenings.

Madonna's experimental college program offers adults, regardless of past educational experience, the opportunity to pursue college courses on a trial basis before actually matriculating at the college.

Credit earned in the trial courses is applicable to degree requirements.

A copy of the schedule of classes for the spring term will be mailed to prospective students on request.

Annual Dinner For Hart Slated

The Oakland County Democratic Party will hold its 16th annual Phil Hart dinner on Saturday, March 31, at 7:30 p.m. in the Oakland Center dining room at Oakland University in Rochester.

Sen. Phil Hart, who is serving his third term in Washington, will be guest of honor. He is best known for his work in consumer protection, civil liberties, anti-trust and environmental issues.

He is chairman of the anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee and a member of the Senate select committee on nutrition and human needs.

Hart was lieutenant governor under G. Mennen Williams in 1954 and 1956. Tickets for the dinner are available at the county Democratic headquarters, 1700 S. Telegraph, Pontiac.

Co-chairmen for the dinner are Mrs. Sandy Silver, 22655 Chatsford, Southfield, and Morris Fierberg, 22663 Shagbark, Birmingham.

Senior Adult Activities Set During Spring

Schoolcraft College's senior adult affairs division is planning a series of leisure time workshops for older adults beginning April 9.

The workshops will present opportunities to sample an assortment of activities, to find new interests or develop skills in an old one. Sessions will be held on Monday afternoons during April and May.

Activities to be covered include home gardening, floral arrangements, photography, kitchen band, mosaics, block printing, woodcarving, antique furniture refinishing and square dancing.

All sessions except the final one will be held on the Schoolcraft campus, while square dancing "in one easy lesson" will be taught at the Livonia Senior Citizens Center, Farmington at Five Mile in Livonia.

A 50 cents fee will be charged for each session, payable at the door. Some of the individual activities will also require a small materials fee.

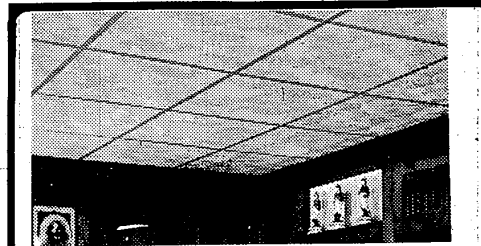

Register for the workshops by calling Mrs. Betty Andrews at Schoolcraft College. Mrs. Andrews will send a brochure listing the complete schedule to persons requesting it.

The fair is sponsored by Project PAVE (Personalized Approach to Veterans Education), Oakland County Veterans Affairs office, VFW, Veterans Administration, Michigan Employment Security Commission, Social Security Commission, Oakland County Social Services Commission, U.S. Dept. of Labor and Target Veteran.

Purpose of the fair is to gather the various organizations concerned with veterans together under one roof to assist veterans.

Information and assistance will be offered to veterans including educational, medical and dental benefits, disabilities and compensations; unemployment compensation; reserves; college financial aids and admissions; vocational rehabilitation; small business and home loans; drug and alcohol programs; and Michigan Trust Fund benefits.
