

Fined For Sleeping In Center Of Road

Harold E. Voltz, 31, of 14232 Ward Street, Detroit, pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly on a public highway Saturday before Judge Bert L. Lockwood in Pontiac. He was sentenced to 45 days in the County Jail or payment of a fine of $15 plus costs and remanded to jail pending payment of the fine.

Voltz was apprehended at 6:30 Friday night by Township Police Officer William Edgar. Edgar stated Voltz was found asleep in his car, standing in the middle of Middlebelt Road north of Nine Mile.

GHOST RIDERS IN THE SKY

"Bewitchers beware! Don't knock on any door! Beggers declare there's no haunts as before! Huh, that's no fun! But wait, here's what's in store. For youngsters and oldsters, trick or treat, there'll be a howling big party out in the street. Gather around where the noise abounds. The fun begins at seven Monday night. You'll find the crowd on Floral between Shilawasee and Aster Street. There'll be music if you care to dance. Movies if you care to look. Games for all the kiddies and refreshments for all the tummies. Everyone will be there — young and old. Come, join the fun and on your neighbors you'll be sold. The kiddies in costumes are enough of a treat. There'll be Raggedy Annes and Andys and witches galore — down, tramps and even mother's shirts. See you all on Floral Street!

Reserve Officers Association ladies will meet Tuesday evening, November 1 at Kingsley's lun at 8 p.m. A representative from Dr. Gaylord Hausner's Cosmetics will speak to the group.

Plans are being made for a semi-formal dance during the holiday season. Groups are also being formed to entertain at the veterans hospital in Dearborn.

Our first honest to goodness frost this week powdered the ground with white and brought out the scarfs, mittens and boots for the kiddies. The coster beans have dropped their exotic leaves into weird looking shapes. No more brilliant flowers in my living room. Guess I'll throw on my old wool jacket and scour the fields for lovely looking pieces of wood a few dried up pods and stick them on my coffee table. You can get some unusual arrangements.

Had a wonderful lecture on flower arranging at Kingsley's last month. The Reserve Officers Association Ladies have their meetings there. By the way, any officers wife is eligible to go and I'd be glad to take them with me. The next meeting is Tuesday, November 1st at 8 p.m. Lots of fun coming up.

Mrs. Robert Garrett is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Tess Miller of Pickford, Michigan, this week.

Did you know we have a celebrity in Floral Park? He's won trophies, ribbons, gold cups and even a master's degree. Not for playing golf, not for selling inurance policies, and not for designing cars. Just for being a dog! The proud owners of "Duke" the doggie champ, are Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Dmochowski, 22430 Floral. Duke's latest acclaim was a blue ribbon and gold cup at the State Fair Show October 15. This entitles him to his C.D.X. diploma from the American Kennel Club. As a puppy he won his Confirmation at two years. The Companion Dog Excellent Diploma means that he had to win first three times in three consecutive shows as a four year old. He has completed and won in shows in Toledo, Mt. Clemens, Flint and Detroit. "Duke" has a sister "Dolly". She's in the really old class and "Duke" really loves it over her. Just like a man, Little Bill McElroy of Floral celebrated her second birthday on October 19 at a real grown-up luncheon. Mother got out her best crystal and china and had a few little friends and their mommies in. Over in Lilac the women have organized a sewing club and had their first meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gerald French.

Mrs. Jack Tucker had a big surprise when her neighbors presented her with a lovely bathrobe for the anticipated Little Tucker.

Mrs. Martin Lawler, Floral, entertained last Thursday evening at a brush party. You should have seen "yours truly" and Mrs. Zaboriski blinded and down on the floor picking up cotton with a spoon. Not funny? Well, try it some time. I didn't get one piece in my dish until the last scoop and I won the prize. I guess it was my meditation. Then we all retired for cider and doughnuts.

Remember our good neighbor, Mrs. Kenneth Gardner? She's had her hands full all week. Billy had had a bad attack of asthma. Michael and Nancy are in bed because of tonsillitis.

Our sympathy to Mrs. O. E. Gieselman, who had been so happy with her new home in Floral Park. Her husband died last Wednesday. A roaring good time was had by all who attended the Harvest Dance at the Glen Oaks Country Club Friday night. Before the dance we were all invited to cook-

Clarenceville News

MRS. HENRY TROUTAUDE

The summer is gone and the holidays are approaching all too fast for most of us. The time for bazaar is here.

The Clarenceville Combined Mothers' Clubs held their annual bazaar Saturday and the Edgewood Rebekah Lodge No. 240 are holding their annual bazaar on Thursday afternoon, November 3. Dinner will follow the bazaar at 6:30 at the Hall at 20911 Inkster Road. This group also has a card party every Thursday afternoon at 1 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. John Griffen went hunting in East Jordan over the week end.

W. C. Drury and his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Drury, were guests over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Whitlock, on Purlingbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Haight on Dresden boulevard have been spending all their spare time for the past few weeks giving their son Richard a hand at building his new home near Beech and Schoolcraft.

Hunting is certainly a popular pastime. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sehnlin have been in Wisconsin for this past week doing some of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hoffman of 21901 Jefferson had a party Sunday at the Andrew LaPresse.

Mrs. E. S. Whitlock, on Purlingbrook, had a party at the home of Mrs. LaPresse, Robert L. Carreets, Robert Ritchies, Raymo Papias, Harley McIntoshes, Don McElroy, James Cavanaugh and Kenneth Soules.

Mrs. Kern Messinger, Lilac, has her brother, William Carter, visiting her. He is with the navy and has just returned from a cruise in the Mediterranean.

All good things must come to an end. I've enjoyed writing the Floral Park News, meeting all you wonderful people and feel a little sad that this will be my last column. Thank you one and all for your cooperation. I'm going to be out of town for a month or more and feel that you would want someone to keep up with the news. Maybe there is one of you or even several who would give us more thorough coverage and will take it over. Call me or Mr. Hickman at The Enterprise.

day, October 23, to celebrate their 10th wedding anniversary. There were about 50 guests present. Buffet luncheon was served.

The choir from the Clarenceville Methodist Church is meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Troutaud on Angling Road for a little get-together, music and fun.

The Intermediate Youth Fellowship of the Clarenceville Methodist Church is having a picnic at Cass Benton Park this Saturday afternoon, after which they are joining the Senior Youth Fellowship for a hayride and party.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Halsetlaw and son, also Elsie Johns, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gruse on Truck Road.

Before we leave the church news, the travelling basket will be on its annual rounds this coming Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neffe on Middlebelt were called out of town by the sudden death of Mr. Neffe's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson on Purlingbrook were in Jackson over the week end.

Residents of the Edgewood-Ramona District were mystified Sunday by the appearance of a man leading a donkey. Twice around the block he went.

The Oxford Pinchclub Club had a Halloween party Saturday night. It was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Farmer of Oxford St. The first prize for the best costume went to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bending, who went as the Devil (Mr.) and the Angel (Mrs). But the luncheon was served and a hilarious time was had by all.

Mr. Clp St. Arno and his wife, Barbara, who was formerly Barbara Stever, have moved back into Clarenceville. They are living on Averhill now.

Let's each of us remember to be careful this week, youngsters and oldsters alike, so that Halloween will be the happy time it's supposed to be, not a tragic memory.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Broecker of Metamora were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Edward Gottschalk and family, on 10 Mile Road Friday.

THE RUGBY
"DANE"

In scholastic and collegiate circles the "Dane" is an overwhelming favorite among sweaters and for mighty good reasons.

It's a baby shaker button coat of pure worsted quality and is available in all the high colors preferred by the young set.

And the way Rugby knits it to fashion-fit the figure and hold its shape is something the gang calls "extra special".
