Jimmy Stock, Edgemoor Drive, has returned to school in Flint, where he is continuing his studies. Lorraine Stock is Junior Librarian at Our Lady of Sorrows School. She's 13.

Wanda Palmer, godmother of Michael Prebo, Jr., was a Wednesday guest at the Stanley Prebo home on Grayling.

Mr. Raymond Layland and his son, Don, of 25624 Grayling, went hunting with Jack, Dick and Jerry Giles, Bill Boyer, and Eddie Limpke. They hunted near Wixom, Michigan. Ed got six rabbits. Don shot a pheasant, and Pappy Layland brought down a duck. Later the men drove to Flint to hunt in a woods owned by Ed Limpke.

Thanks to Mr. Alf Landgren, of 27109 Orchard Lake, for putting up "no hunting" signs in several places—helps to keep us from getting shot.

Mrs. Jean Stock and Olga Rice attended the P.T.A. meeting at Bond School Monday. They also met a couple of neighbors who attended the meeting together, Mrs. Richard Ellis and Mrs. Red Warnke.

We're glad to know that Mr. Albert Gramer, of 27635 Inkster Road, is feeling much better after a gall bladder operation.

Week ending at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slusser, 30400 12 Mile Road, was their grandmother, who came from Flint. Their other recent visitors were their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. DeLisle, from Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lincoln paid a visit at the home of the Harry Westlands Monday, October 17.

Mr. Richard Ellis and Red Warnke have been busy putting up a "no hunting, no trespassing" sign. Since then, nary a stray shot has been heard. If no animal comes along to shoot the sign full of holes, the neighborhood will stay quiet.

Tuesday, October 18, Mrs. Edith Westland of Orchard Lake Road left by motor to visit Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sperling, formerly of Detroit. Mr. Sperling is president of the Love Machine and Tool Co. in Indianapolis.

One time, he owned a lot in the Forest Hills subdivision but sold it to the man who owns and runs the "Foot Long" hot dog stand on the corner of Northwestern and Franklin Road. The lot is on Rockshire Drive. The whole length of Rockshire Drive has but one family living on it, they are Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Campbell and son, Bobby.

Mr. Stork has taken a fancy to delivering baby girls to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wardell of Rockwell Street, as he brought them on eight pounds last week. The Wardells have two other daughters, Patty and Mary Margaret.

Dr. Ben Darling's brother Cy suffered a serious heart attack on Tuesday, October 18. He is a surgeon, living in Bloomfield Hills. A telegram was dispatched to Dr. Darling, who recently moved to California.

That rumbling, wasn't thunder. It was just residents of this neighborhood grumbling over their "advised" water bills. Those who found theirs much higher than the usual rate wonder if they could afford to have water if as much as $1.00 is needed. We were available as a new booster station which should increase the rationed supply next summer. And eventually the "debt service charge" should end. But nobody seems to know when. In the meantime let's grin and be grateful for what water we have. At least we don't have to go out with a pail and pump it.

Those readers who find the waiting tough for their future water and gas lines will envy our friends, Mr. and Mrs. Romie Mailoux, who have a beautiful spot for their future home on Belle Creek Lane, south of Farmington. Not only did they well-digger "bring in" a fine supply of water for them, but also generous gas line which they intend to use for heating their home. It sounds like Ripley, and it's true.

Romie and Myrtle Mailoux moved away from their Farmington friends several years ago and are mighty anxious to get back. Among dinner guests last Thursday at the apartment on Burlington in Detroit were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Eckert and Deanna, of 29223 Scotton.

Life is wonderful again for pretty Maureen Waack of 29213 Scotton who has cast off her cast, at last. Maureen, a sophomore at Clarenceville High, was an enthusiastic member of the high-stepping band until she found a practice session too strenuous this fall. She broke her foot on one of the fancy new formations.

We're all mighty proud of that new gymnasium, and the basketball last Friday evening brought a big crowd to see it. School and community spirit should be vastly improved this year, as the gym gradually comes into use.

There's going to be a big "dollar" in the field back of the high school next Sunday. It's the girls' "Scouts Own" and all the troops will have a part in the program. Don't worry if there's a nip in the air for you can toast your toes round the big camp fire.

Scout leaders of the Clarenceville association have lost several of their old faithful members this fall, and will be glad to have them return to the fold again when possible. Their untiring efforts have been appreciated and their part in our exceptionally alive Girl Scout movement is something to be proud of. Among those retiring are Mesdames Rutla, Campbell, Jaynes, Hamilton, Edgerton, Hines, Stollker, Trouteaud, and Van Zant.

Mrs. Arthur Mann of 29018 Eight Mile Road is doubly busy these days. Since second little daughter started her school days last month, the house seemed awfully quiet. So, mother is leaving each morning now, too, for an office job in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Luke and daughter Joyce of Middlebury, Indiana, were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vesey of 29223 Dresden. Mrs. Vesey and her son, Logan Earl Luke, formerly were from Middlebury. Their relatives thought the beauty of our neighborhood comparable with that of their town.

Little Gary Lee Hasley of Scotton Street had the green light for candy last Wednesday, October 17. It was his second birthday, and Mom, Mrs. Lee Hasley, invited his little friends in to celebrate. There's a shiny new tricycle at Gary's house now and it gets a workout every day.

Demonstration parties seem to be keeping the ladies of the neighborhood shining up their homes. Mrs. Russell Ellis, Mrs. Robert Dennis, Mrs. T. J. LaFollette, and Mrs. Vern Hawley are among the recent hostesses. Mrs. Hawley reports her new recreation room has had such a steady stream of visitors she's afraid the something down there to use for heating their home.

Bronze Troop 1 hiked from Central School to the Hawley's back yard last Tuesday, October 18, to roast hot dogs and marshmallows. The only marring of the little girls' outing was the danger of hunters stalking the neighborhood. Township police tell us they won't be doing it next year if the new non-hunting ordinance is passed. And we're sure it will be.
