MRS. HENRY TROUTEAU
TELEPHONE FARMINGTON 1038

It's always a good thing this time of year to count our many blessings. There are so many things we can be thankful for, and the more we count, the more there are.

The Erwins at 21225 Whittington are looking forward to seeing their son, Robert H. Erwin, and his daughter, Betty Ann, come home from Michigan State College for Thanksgiving. Robert is bringing home his bride-to-be, Edna Lyster, for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Burke Holt Johnson, the elder daughter, and her husband, will complete the family reunion.

The pillowcase card party for the benefit of the Girl Scouts' evening lesson was a grand success. Mrs. Haskell's Brownies made puppets and put on a little puppet show for a couple of the rooms over at Edna Holt School last Tuesday. Madeline Galt, 19, just went back to work last Friday after being laid up for a couple of weeks because of an automobile accident which occurred when the car in which she was riding collided with another car broadside. They were within a few miles of Grand Rapids.

There is a movement on foot to raise money for some kind of memorial for Mrs. Phyllis Plank, who died in 1947. A grand piano was thought of, and if anyone is interested, they can get in touch with Mrs. Axel Rutila.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fellows of 21115 Robinson went out hunting Wednesday with their dog. They bagged a good sized one, too, right out here near Northville.

We have to go a hundred miles to hunt?

Mrs. Charles Fellows also entertained Carol Fairchild, a niece, of the Fairchild family in Detroit, over the week end.

The Oxford Sewing Club will meet this Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Briggs for lunch and an afternoon of sewing and a gabfest.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Eupel after their new Hudson they have been looking forward to. A beautiful one.

William S. Elliot of Lathrop Road went to Seney, Michigan, for a week's hunting and got an eight point buck on one of his trips.

Remember the Harvest Hard Time dance this Saturday at the gym. Put on your jeans and shirt and come along.

Hard party the following Saturday given by the Pathfinder group. Proceeds are to go for equipment for the new gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Broecker of Metamora spent Wednesday with their daughter, Mrs. Edward Gottschalk and family.

Mrs. Donald Jack spent Monday doing her Christmas shopping in Detroit with her former girl friend, Mrs. Thomas Muller of Los Angeles, California, who is visiting in Detroit. Mrs. Jack's children spent the day with their mother's aunt, Mrs. Robert Anderson of Brighton.

Mrs. Frater Hults is confined to her bed with a bad case of grippe. Mrs. Otto Rixin and Mrs. Lyman Bush attended the Oakland County Farm Bureau Women's potluck dinner at Stonestown in Walled Lake Tuesday, where plans were made to give the polo patients a Christmas party at the Sister Kenny Foundation at Pontiac.

There will be trees for each room and stockings and a gift for each patient.

Mrs. Wendell Green went shopping at the "Pie 'N' Whistle" shop in Lansing Tuesday. That is where the gold stamps given to some Farmington merchants are honored.

Mrs. and Mr. A. W. Bidwell of Northville called on Mrs. and Mr. Frater Hults and family Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leonard of 12 Mile Road, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dunbar and Mrs. Lyman Bush attended the Farmington P.T.A. and heard Mrs. G. Menner Williams speak on "Youth Problems."

Word received from Wendell Green and his party, hunting in the upper peninsula, stated one of their group, Fred Hewitt of Farmington, had downed his buck and was flying home Tuesday. The rest of the party plans to stay on and hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Warmath and four children, formerly of Sunny Lane Farms in South Lyon have accepted a position on the Edward Gottschalk farm and have already moved to their new home in Ten Mile Road.

Nicholas Day and Allen Newman returned Thursday from their hunting trip near Hale, Michigan, minus their buck. They reported seeing lots of deer.

Otto Rixin and Ray Howard attended the annual Farm Bureau convention in Lansing November 10, at which Ray was a delegate.

Mrs. H. W. Kleinschmidt and daughter Clara, of Oakbrook, Wisconsin, arrived Friday to spend a week, including Thanksgiving holiday, with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rixin on Drake Road.

E. W. Mason returned late Tuesday night from a business trip in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult and son Alfred returned home Friday night after a week's hunting trip in northern Michigan. They reported much fog and rain.

Shortly after 5 a.m. Wednesday, in Harper Hospital, Detroit, a six and a half ounce daughter, Mary Margaret, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, of 5072 Bart Road, Detroit. Mother and child are doing well. Bob Hunter is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ault, Mayfield Avenue.

The Edwin Johnsons of Clarita Avenue left Friday evening to spend the week with the Johnsons Pipers in New London.

Eleanor and Richard Bishop, of Shadydale Avenue, celebrated their birthday together Saturday afternoon. Young school friends of the brother and sister gathered at the Bishop home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Altman, Jr., were calling on Mr. Altman's parents in Shadydale Avenue one day last week.

George Welch of Mayfield Avenue has been with friends in West Branch this week.

Ed and Kenneth Houtz and Gordon Fisher were with the hunters in northern Michigan last week. Clyde Buckingham has been to the Farmington Simpson home to attend an unusually enjoyable brush demonstration party at his home on Mayfield Avenue last Tuesday morning.

A group of 10 ladies participated in the contest for entertainment for the occasion. Mrs. Edward Brugman and Mrs. Cecil Wilt were awarded prizes. Another of the demonstration parties was held at the home of Mrs. Edna Holt last Tuesday.
