Santa Says . . .

The holiday season is almost here and my advise to you is that you get those clothes that need dry cleaning down to FARMINGTON CLEANERS right now! Give them ample time to do the kind of a job you have a right to expect — the kind of quality work they are not ed for. Their completely modern plant and trained personnel are ready to serve your holiday dry cleaning requirements.

REPAIRS AND ALTERATIONS

Our craftsmen are especially trained to repair and alter your old garments. Bring them to us today. They'll look like new tomorrow.

Grace Church Shows Two Moving Pictures

The Young People's Society of Grace Lutheran Church, 25600 Grand River Avenue, is showing two moving pictures Sunday, December 4, at 8 p.m.

Mr. H. Wangelicher secured the pictures, "Wings Across Vikingland" and "Wings Across Arizona" through the courtesy of the Chrysler Corporation.

The big Christmas Fair is Thursday, December 1. There will be booths for fancy work and other items suitable for Christmas gifts. A candy booth will be sponsored by the Young People's Society, a booth for religious articles and Christmas cards, a fish pond for the children and free movies in the evening. Hot plate lunches, soft drinks and hot dogs will be served at all hours.

The small fry certainly enjoyed their perfect holiday weather. It's a little hard on the birds, though. The pleasure of watching them in the willow woods the little time and effort it takes to put out seed and bread crumbs, and a little gravel.

Let's hope the weather holds out for the sake of Clarenceville Boy Scout Troop 2. John Horn, their Scoutmaster, is taking them on a camping trip to Camp Howell Scout Reservation this week end. They will participate in outdoor Scouting activities such as tracking, hiking, and even winter sports.

The Hautamakis have sold their home on St. Francis to Mr. and Mrs. Finch and family, whom we welcome to our neighborhood. Mr. Parrish works in the Ford Engineering Department. The Hautamakis are staying for the winter in the Pink home.

An orchid to Katherine Swarthout. She has composed an Eastern Star march in honor of Mrs. Wanda Barnes, Wagon Master of Farmington Eastern Star Chapter 239, in memory of Harvey Barnes, Past Worthy Patron. The march was played and dedicated by Katherine Swarthout last Tuesday night.

The H. S. Stevens family have had a busy holiday week end. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaufman from Kuyhoga Falls, Ohio, son and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Stevens from Detroit, and daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. L. Jones of Detroit were over for Christmas Friday. The John Kaufmann spent Thanksgiving at John's parents' home on Nine Mile Road.

The Wilcozes on Angling Road had a big family reunion. There were 33 here for dinner.

The Pathfinders, which, by the way, is a chartered club, are holding their card party on December 3 to raise more money for gym equipment. The money will be added to the $31 raised last year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. LaVeque on Resnauer entertained their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lavan Duman for Thanksgiving.

The Altar Society of Our Lady of Sorrows Church of Farmington put on a bean and hot dog supper Saturday, November 26, at the Parish Hall, for that night, the "Gigglemuck Cafe". Quart whisky bottles were used as candleholders at atmosphere. A raffle followed the supper. Among those on the program were Betty Schaeffer and Rose Hildebrandt in costume. They sang and acted "I Didn't Know The Gun Was Loaded". A piano duet, "The Darktown Strutter's Ball", was rendered in bebop by Mrs. Lake and Mrs. LaPresse. Pat Cronin did imitations of Al Johnson and Beatrice Kay. A backstage dialogue and several other acts gave patrons of the "Gigglemuck Cafe" much laughter for their money.

The Griffin family on Haven had a marvelous two weeks. They just came home Sunday night. They held their family reunion in their cottage on Lake Chautauque, near East Jordan. It was the first reunion at which all were together since the young folks were married. There were the John Griffins of That Thanksgiving dinner to which the Harry Westlands of Orchard Lake Road invited me, at the "Bit of Sweden" restaurant in Detroit, was the cause of my downfall. After I had eaten a mountain of "Smorgasbord" I was quite filled up. Then the Westlands sent me the main course of sweet potatoes, chestnut dressing, squash, cider, dessert and coffee is yet to come!

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Prebo of Grayling Avenue spent the Thanksgiving holiday with Mrs. Prebo's parents, who live in Saginaw.

The "Brady" relatives of Mr. and Mrs. John Stock of Edgemoor Drive had a real old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner at the Stock home. Mrs. Stock served turkey, chicken, and "dresmbomb" of a pumpkin pie, plus home baked goods galore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Robinson of Edgemoor Drive attended the funeral last Friday of Mrs. Robinson's mother, who was killed in an automobile accident in Detroit. Her leg was broken and she lived only two days after the accident. The man whose car killed Mrs. Robinson's mother was rushing to a hospital with his own young son who was injured in another accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cox of Pontiac were Saturday evening guests of the Ray Lajstans of Grayling Avenue.
