BEST CITIZENS AT FARM SHOW—Meat packer Thomas E. Wilson, center, congratulates Dwight Nelson, 20, of Boone, Ia., and Dianne Mathre, 18, of De Kalb, Ill., winners of the 4-H "Citizens" award. The award is made for service to the community.

SPEAKERS AT 10 FRANCE—Clair M. Roddewig, left, president of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad, presents bells to the Right Reverend William Cousins, auxiliary bishop of Chicago, to replace bells of Litley-les-Mines in France. The Litley bells were damaged beyond repair in telling the joyous news of the American invasion. The C&EI bells were used on steam locomotives.

It's food magic, says the family! It's pork tenderloin, says the homemaker! And according to well-known food expert Robert Stapp, this long, tapering, pork muscle may be either left whole and roasted or braised or cut into individual servings or French-cut (cut cross-wise into two-inch slices and flattened) and braised or slowly panfried.

Whole pork tenderloin filled with a well-seasoned stuffing is simply prepared by slitting the muscle nearly through lengthwise, then opening it out flat and spreading with stuffing. Or two tenderloins flattened out may be placed one on top of the other with stuffing between and skewered or sewed around the edges. Either way, stuffed tenderloin is placed on a rack in an open roasting pan and slowly cooked in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until well done.

French pork tenderloin slices are temptingly prepared in a cream sauce following the braising process. The salt and browned hot lard or drippings then seasoned with salt and pepper. One cup of cream is added, the frying pan covered and the meat allowed to cook slowly for about 45 minutes or until the meat is well done. The fillets are removed to a hot platter; the cream thickened with flour and the gravy brought to a boil for three to five minutes. The gravy is served over the meat.

For pan-frying, the tenderloin slices are dredged with flour and browned on both sides in hot lard. The meat is seasoned, then cooked in a moderate temperature until done, turning occasionally. About 35 to 45 minutes cooking time should be allowed.

Great Lakes Herring Ignored As Delicacy

Nutritious and inexpensive morsels, Great Lakes herring, are not the run and are being harvested in typical heavy fall quantities, but too small a portion of the catch is ending up on Michigan dinner tables.

Housewives who would like to take advantage of the low prices on this nourishing fish food, but do not know different and tasty ways to serve it, can get 14 tested recipes from the conservation department or Michigan State College. Requests for the specially prepared recipe booklet, which includes such items as Danish herring, baked herring fillets, herring salad, herring soufflé and the old reliable pickled herring, should be sent to the department's education division at Lansing or to the College Bulletin Office at East Lansing.

Weather conditions as well as market prices will affect the 1949 harvest total.
