Edgemoor Items

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Grigsby of 20740 12 Mile Road gave a dinner party December 24 for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Westland of Orchard Lake Road, and Miss Olga Rice of Edgemoor Drive. The same evening, Mrs. Grigsby received a long distance telephone call from a classmate in a nursing school whom she hasn't seen nor heard of in 25 years.

In the accident department we have a broken window at the Jimmy Johnson home on Northwestern Highway. Among the children's Christmas toys was a punching bag which was a punching bag for the Johnsons.

Mrs. Florence Ackley of 21237 Greer Street spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woolfenden of Birmingham. Mrs. Ackley moved here a year ago from Royal Oak.

Old Doc Stork was so busy delivering Christmas holiday packages that it was on the 28th instead when he finally showed up with a baby boy for Mr. and Mrs. Donkey MacDonald of 20409 West 12 Mile Road. The youngster tipped the scales at eight pounds, one half ounce. Mother and baby are now at the St. Joseph Hospital in Pontiac and both doing fine.

A festive family gathering was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. David DeLisle of Flint and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Norvinsky of Detroit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stusser of 20420 12 Mile Road. The visitors are daughters and sons-in-law of the Stussers.

John and Genevieve Stock of 21548 Edgemoor Drive had a full house last week when all the younger Storks were rounded up for a family gathering to start the New Year right. Mary and Larry, their eldest son Jimmy came home from Flint, Vincent and Lorraine, who still go to school, made a total of seven. Wolf, their perky-eared "pup" brought up the number to eight. As Mrs. Stock said later: the house was splitting open at the seams that day.

Christmas has a way of hanging in a person's mind. If by no other means than the needles we'll be sweeping out for the next month. You know you're really had the Christmas spirit when you start brushing them out of the chandeliers, too.

At our house... like most, no doubt, whose kids hold reign... the last candy cane rode out the holidays on the highest spot we could find, the curtain rod in the kitchen. "Old meanies," some folk would say, but it's serious business trying to right a child's appetite after a double-holiday span of sweets.

There were at least 25 families made happier this Christmas through the distribution of food baskets by our civic association. Next Christmas we'll do an even bigger job, though it would be more encouraging to think instead of a constant year's growth in 1950 of prosperity and good luck for all our neighbors.

"New street lights for our so-called black neighborhood" is Mrs. Allen Snider's wish for 1950. "Also some more gravel and work done on our muddy road," she added quickly, noting the muddy wheels on their new car. The Sniders were new here from Virginia a year ago and are puzzled about our muddy Christmas weather. They will be true Michiganders in short order if they just keep on being puzzled.

Adding up months on their 1948 calendar used while living in this neighborhood, the Howard Nelsons of List Street are checking up hopes again this year, among their New Year wishes, for improved streets and water systems. The Nelsons had just built their new home on Eight Mile near Grand River when their property was condemned by the State for use in improving the highway. So they jacked up their brand new house and changed their landscaping problems to the present site at 25509 List. And withreached here Christmas Eve at the the steady increase of traffic on Eight Mile Road through the years, they've thanked the State of Michigan that they were forced to re-trench to List Street.

"Please, a stop light at our corner this year!" the George Buchanans, who live on Eight Mile near Middlebelt, are urging. And their neighbors down the street, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mann and the Martin Ulrichs would put in their wishes for a load of permanent filler for the bad hole at their corner of Roosevelt. Everyone who turns that corner daily knows just what they mean.

We weren't too surprised to hear that the Dan Elliotts of 21110 Elliott had a household for Christmas. Dan Douglas and daughter, Mrs. James Hamilton and their families (from Detroit). But... when we asked if we were hearing correctly we weren't just kidding. The Elliotts actually did entertain at a holiday dinner Wednesday evening a Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gable. That's right, only these Clark Gables are from Detroit and aren't newly-weds. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McVier of Detroit were the other celebrities there.

When you have four children, all under eight; years of age, the holidays can be a pretty noisy and exciting time. "Particularly just before Santa arrives," Mrs. Charles Grose exclaimed. One child stimulates a younger, setting up a chain reaction that can raise the roof. However, Santa did his bit to create a quieter atmosphere there this year, bringing more Christmas peace than he would believe possible to the adults concerned. "And more peace to the neighbors, too," Mrs. Grose added. "The neighbors with television have one of their own."

It was an unexpected and not happy Christmas greeting which Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McVier of Detroit were the other celebrities there.

No wonder they're calling them
"TOP CHOICE FOR 'FIFTY"

They're greater in power—higher in compression—a standout in styling—dreams to drive—and now there's a Buick beauty for 1950 to fit practically any budget

No, we just couldn't hold back the whole big Buick line for 1950.

They're too jam-packed with stepped-up, higher-compression, ready-to-ramble power—to be kept under cover.

So maybe you've already seen some 1950 Buicks on the highway.

Maybe you've noticed the extra "git up and travel" they have—glimpesd the wide, curving windshields (one piece in most models)—noted, approvingly, that the typical Buick taper is now found in all Buick fenders.

LOTS OF LUGGAGE SPACE, plus a high-fashion rear-end treatment, graces the Buick tourback Sedan models for 1950. This is the ROADMASTER, and above is the SUPER version of this much-wanted 4-door, 6-passenger Sedan.

Maybe you've even heard some things...

That there are more than a dozen-and-a-half models to choose from. That there are three power plants in the Buick line—all of higher compression, all stepped up in power.

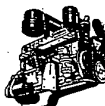

That all models are big and roomy inside—some rear seats are better than a foot wider than before!—yet in every instance, shorter over-all, so easier to handle, park and garage.

Above all, maybe you've heard of exciting news on price...

That Dynaflo Drive, for instance—standard on ROADMASTER models, optional on all others—now costs 20% less than on 1949 models.

POWER NEWS WITH A REAL PUNCH!

Here's just one part of Buick's three-way power story for 1950—the brand-new 2-6-3 valve-in-head straight-eight, pushing a walling that makes the SUPER a standout performer of the season, here is still higher compression and still greater power in no greater over-all size. You'll get this new engine on all SUPER models, in 124 hp with Synchro-Mesh transmission, 128 hp with Dynaflo Drive.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on all other Buick SUPER and SPECIAL models.

That in the full line—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER series—there is a Buick to fit practically every budget above the very lowest!

Hadn't you better see him—right now—and see if you, too, don't find Buick "top choice for 1950?"
