Pastors' Conference Is Scheduled At U. Of M.

Ministers of Michigan churches will gather at the University of Michigan January 15 to 18 for the annual Pastors' Conference, sponsored by the University Extension Service and Michigan Council of Churches and Christian Education. Principal speakers will be Bishop John Samuel Stamm, of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, who is president of the Federal Council of Churches, and Dr. Harris Franklin Rall, professor emeritus of Christian doctrine, at Garrett Biblical Institute.

Governor G. Mennen Williams also will be a guest at the Pastors' Conference and will speak at the annual Fellowship Dinner on Monday night, January 16, at the First Methodist Church.

Delegates to the conference will meet in discussion groups for discussion of such topics as pastoral counseling and the church and its older people.

Farmington Road — 1926 — is also Mr. Schweier's home address. The Schweiers were married in January, 1944. She is the former Betty Edwards of Midland. They have no children.

Mr. Schweier is a graduate of Cooley High School and the class of 1941 at Olivet College. His hobbies are golf and bowling.

And he doesn't have a single pebble about his business — he likes it, and says the rest of Farmington does, too.

WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Continued from Page Two) however, indicates that the justice department is extremely reluctant to go after the big boys in government, and that most of the cleanup cases have been developed either by committees of congress or by the newspapers. Frequently it isn't until after a crime has been thoroughly aired by the press and on Capitol Hill that the so-called upholders of the law in the justice department move in. And if some friend or high political figure is involved, such as John Maragou, sometimes they don't move at all. Here are a few notable cases in point.

Alger Hiss—Now on trial for perjury. This case was developed by the house un-American activities committee, which turned up the famous pumpkin papers. Since the justice department finally moved in, however, its lawyers have done an efficient and persistent job.

Congressman Andrew May of Kentucky—Now sentenced to jail. Various hints of May's peculiar activities were published by this column and others for some years but it took the senate investigating committee, under Sen. Jim Mead of New York, to bring out the facts.

After that the justice department acted.

Congressman Parnell Thomas, — Now sentenced to jail. "It took a newspaperman to dig out Thomas's skullduggery. After the canceled checks in Thomas's kickback deals, plus an important witness, were turned over to the justice department, it carried through thoroughly and efficiently. However, Alex Campbell, dynamic chief of the criminal division, who carried the ball, had to buck some opposition near the top.

Gen. Benny Meyers — The first public revelation that General Meyers had been up to no good was published in this column on July 28, 1947, when it was stated that Meyers had speculated in the stock market with as much as four million dollars.

"FASHIONED for every taste— Priced for every BUDGET"

Look over the 1950 Buick line, which these three high-fashioned honeys represent, and decide for yourself if that's truth or just talk.

Nineteen—Yes, 19—smart new and varied models to choose from, and all with the eye-catching styling of bold-lined bumper-guard grilles, sleek tapering fenders, the over-all look of a jet plane in flight.

Three full series—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER—with SPECIAL models available in both standard or de luxe finish.

Three separate power plants—in five horsepower ratings—all more powerful, higher in compression, all Fireball valve-in-heads—and one of them, the sensational new F-263, giving SUPER models extra brilliance on the road.

Four wheelbases—all planned for riding comfort—with overhang reduced to make parking and garaging easier. Roominess galore, with rear seats as much as 13 inches wider.

Plenty of outlook as well. And the abiding comfort of coil springs on all four wheels. And the steady going of torque-tube drive—plus Safety-Ride rims for comfort plus control.

Then look at prices—do they really fit any budget?

They range from the fine-car level of the ROADMASTER down to just-above-the-lowest figures on the SPECIAL. But even these are so little above anything else—buy you so many more years of happy use—and give you a car of such consistently better trade-in value—that you'll find Buick reachable by buyers in any price range.

So why not get the whole story, price and all, from your Buick dealer now? Deliveries are good, the "deal" is right, and a signed-up order steps you up to that Buick you've always dreamed about!
