

Robert Casey, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nofke, has joined the U. S. Air Force, and is now stationed at San Antonio, Texas.

Fascism was first developed under Benito Mussolini.

Mr. and Mrs. Vince Meiff, of Oswego, New York, are parents of a son, James Charles. The mother was formerly Marie L. Case of Farmington. Grandparents are Mrs. Sarah Case and the late James Case.

Mrs. Christianson Wed At Home Ceremony

A teal blue afternoon dress with brown accessories was the costume chosen by Mrs. Edna Christianson for her wedding Saturday night. Mrs. Christianson, who lives at 20310 St. Francis, became the bride of Walter Schnecke, of Detroit.

At the 9 p.m. home wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boyer were best man and maid of honor. The Boyers are the daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Christianson.

Rev. Elsie A. Johns of the Clarenceville Methodist Church officiated at the single-ring ceremony held at the flower decked Christianson home.

Following the wedding, a reception at the Odd Fellows Hall on Inkster Road honored the couple. More than 200 people attended the reception, at which a buffet lunch was served by Mrs. Wilbur Tucker and Mrs. Elmer Dawitt, sister-in-law and sister, respectively, of the bride.

Junior Bowlers Ready For High School League

Under the instruction of Miss Ann Metzger and Mr. Robert Hutton the seventh and eighth grade bowlers are rolling high scores. Last week Dan Goodrich bowled 162; Sylvia Bates, 154; and Craig Rockenfeller, 157. These bowling classes meet first and sixth hours on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. This is a part of their physical education training. Each bowler must know how to keep his own score, and those who do not bowl must know the fundamentals as well.

Mr. Hutton stated that this was probably the only school in Michigan that taught bowling for credit. The cost is only 10 cents a line. The reason for this is that the seventh and eighth grades furnish their own pin setters.

Waiting List Started For Owl Decoys

The conservation department's present supply of great horned owls has been picked up by sportsmen and a waiting list for the crow decoys has started. These native Michigan owls are live-trapped at the Mason state game farm to protect hatchery pheasant from their forays.

A card party and dance will be sponsored by the Good Fellowship Social Club Saturday, January 23, at 8 p.m. at 20911 Inkster Road.

Palette And Brush Club Meets January 24

The Palette and Brush Club will hold their regular meeting January 24 at the Westlawn Methodist Church at Ohio and Grand River Avenues. The meeting will come to order at 11:30 a.m.

Luncheon follows at 1 p.m., after which John Coppin, well known Detroit artist, will act as guest speaker and critic. Members will bring in one picture each for criticism.

To place reservations, call Mrs. Harry Deehan, KE. 2-4695 or Mrs. Don Heaton at TO. 7-6531, not later than Saturday, January 21.

MSC Grads Hold Potluck Tionight

G. A. Nohstall, spokesman for the Northville - Plymouth - Farmington area of the Michigan State College Alumni Association, has sent all known MSC Alumni in the Farmington area an invitation to the Alumni Meeting January 19.

The meeting, which starts at 7 p.m. in the Farmington High School cafeteria, will take the form of a potluck supper. Alumni have been asked to bring their own dishes and dish to pass.

Dean Emmons, of the MSC faculty, will tell of MSC's part in the Big Ten. Moving pictures of the MSC-Arizona game will be shown.

Legion Auxiliary Card Party Attended By 75

75 women attended the card party and dessert luncheon presented by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Groves-Walker Post of the American Legion last Thursday.

The party, held at the Legion Hall on Grand River Avenue, was presented by Mrs. Ruth Van Eversy, Mrs. Ravella Hupert, and Mrs. Zella Nowlan, as co-hostesses.

Among prizes at the party were aprons made and donated by Auxiliary members, and a pair of hand-embroidered pillow cases made and donated by Mrs. Helen Eisonford. Next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at 8:30 p.m. February 13 at the Legion Hall on Grand River Avenue.

Livonia Home Gardeners Discuss "Frozen Foods"

Miss Marjorie Heppburn, of the Detroit Edison Company, will be guest speaker at the next meeting of the Livonia Home Gardeners Club, 8 p.m. January 25, at the Livonia Town Hall, 33101 Five Mile Road.

Miss Heppburn's topic for the evening will be "frozen foods". A question and answer period will follow her address.

History owes its excellency more to the writer's manner than to the material of which it is composed.

FRANK - BROWN

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Frank, of 22117 Tenny Avenue, Dearborn, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Rose Ann, to Robert K. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Brown, of Birmingham. No date has been set for the wedding.
