Seven-Year-Old Girl Bitten By Two Dogs

Marcia Ann Beebe, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beebe of 22776 Floral, was bitten by two dogs last Wednesday as she played near the family home.

According to Farmington police, Marcia was bitten by a mongrel and a cocker spaniel. Police have traced ownership of the dogs, which are now being kept under observation.

Marcia, who goes to the kindergarten at the new Ten Mile Road School, was playing near a pack of dogs running loose when the two bit her.

Girl Scouts Give Valentine Dinner Party

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 174 led by Mrs. John Spiller completely executed a potluck dinner for a "Daughters and Dads" Valentine supper last Tuesday at the William Grace School.

The girls planned the menu, decorations, and entertainment for the dinner, a repetition of last year's. 26 daughters and dads attended the dinner, repeated by popular request. The troop committee stayed on hand, however, to make sure all went well.
