

Barbara Johnson Wed

Barbara J. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Johnson of Ramblewood Avenue, Livonia, became the bride of Richard V. Martin, III in an early evening ceremony in Ward United Presbyterian Church.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard V.

Martin Jr. of Grosse Ile. Dr. Bartlett Hess officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sateen gown with bishop sleeves, Victorian collar and a flounce of Nottingham lace edging the hemline and chapel train.

A Juliet cap of Venice lace held her chapel length veil, and she carried a cascade of white gladiolas with snowdrifts and miniature carnations.

Burgandy velvet fashioned her attendants' gowns, and they carried white fur muffs with red and white carnations and red velvet leaves.

The bridegroom wore a white crushed velvet tuxedo and his attendants had burgundy crushed velvet tuxedos.

Mrs. Donald Portice of Taylor was matron of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Clotfelter of East Detroit and Sue and Pam Martin and Wanda Johnson, sisters of the bride.

Kelly Vaughn was best man. The ushers were Donald Portice, Dan Bowling, Larry Willis and Gordon Demster.

For the wedding and reception in Carlton House, Warren, the bride's mother wore a two-piece turquoise silk gown and the bridegroom's mother was in red crepe.

The couple went to Palm Beach for their honeymoon.

Both are employed by Sears. The new Mrs. Martin is a 1972 graduate of Bentley High School. Her husband graduated from Grosse Ile High school in 1967 and served in Vietnam with the U.S. Army.

MRS. KENNETH B. KRUGER (Judy Green)

Judy Green Is New Bride

Judy A. Green became the bride of Kenneth B. Kruger in a candlelight service March 24 in the First United Methodist Church of Plymouth.

The Rev. Paul M. Cargo performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Harger Green of Jo Anne Lane, Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Kruger of Grand Rapids are the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of ivory silk organza, with chantilly lace forming a bib effect on the bodice and fashioning the long sleeves.

Matching lace edged the mantilla veil that fell from a camelot cap.

Her attendants wore floor-length pink floral print gowns.

Anna Hunemörder of Midland was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. David Green of LaGrange, Ill., and Mrs. Jerry Curnutt of Midland. Angela Ross of Midland was junior bridesmaid and Laura Green of LaGrange was flower girl.

Assisting the bridegroom were Charles Kruger of Dallas as best man and Steven Hill of Midland, David Green of LaGrange and Ronald Droski of Grand Rapids as ushers.

A church reception followed the wedding.

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon in Nassau and make their home in Midland.

Grays Are Wed In Loretto

Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church in Redford Township was the setting for the March 24 afternoon wedding of Patricia A. Burke and John R. Gray.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Burke of Brookview Avenue, Livonia. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. G.M. Byerly of Jackson and the late William H. Gray.

Officiating for the ceremony was the Rev. Herman Schmitt, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

She wore a floor-length white satin chiffon empire gown with lace trim. Lace edged her full length veil.

MRS. JOHN R. GRAY (Patricia A. Burke)

Coed Qualifies

Wayne State University junior diver Dacia Schilleru became the first coed to qualify for an NCAA championship event when she posted point totals of 3587.30 and 396.45 at one and three meters respectively vs. Northern Michigan this winter.

Kathryn M. Burke, as maid of honor for her sister, wore a lavender chiffon dress, also floor-length.

The bridesmaids were Jeanne E. Burke, another sister, Melissa A. Doyle of Pontiac, the bride's cousin, and Mary Jo Kennedy of Howell.

The best man was William H. Gray of Detroit, brother of the bridegroom. Bernard J. Burke, the bride's brother, Timothy M. Davidson of Mt. Pleasant and Jerry Van Ness of Jackson seated the guests.

Palmer-Henning Rites Ecumenical

An ecumenical service in Mt. Zion Lutheran Church of Detroit united Norma Jean Henning and Mark Thomas Palmer in marriage March 24.

The Rev. Robert Larsen of Mt. Zion and Father Robert Rusewalski of Assumption Grotto Catholic Church officiated for the early evening candlelight rites.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Henning of Harper Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Palmer of Nottingham Road, Farmington.

The bride wore an A-line gown of ivory faille with Venice lace accents. A lace headpiece held her long veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white and yellow roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Michael Oldham, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Susan Palmer, Mrs. Michael Thompson and Mrs. Fred Weiser. Jennifer Oldham was flower girl.

The attendants' dresses had light blue crepe skirts and royal blue lace bodices. They carried colonial bouquets with multi-colored flowers.

The bridegroom's brother, Jeffrey Palmer, was best man, and the ushers were Kenneth Terrill, Gary Vittoz and Edward Schapp. Christopher Oldham served as ring-bearer.

Mrs. Henning selected a long, pale pink dress. Mrs. Palmer was in azure blue chiffon. Both pinned orchids to their purses.

The reception was held in Chateau Rouge restaurant immediately following the ceremony.
