Library Gifts Are Welcome

EDITOR:
We read with great interest and pride the article in the Farmington Enterprise and Observer telling of the future plans of the Farmington Friends of the Library to enhance and assist the library in its community services; e.g., refreshments for the children's programs, cameras for record purposes, and, of course, the ornamental copper tree.

All of this was confirmed by Director Mary Mitchell at our meeting March 7.

The contributions are really personal to the library - beyond the responsibility of the board of trustees and its operating budget. Such thoughtfulness is very much appreciated. We of the board of trustees wish to convey our thanks to the Friends membership.

When we speak of gratitude of the members of the Library Board, we are sure this includes the pleasure of the entire community of Farmington.

Cooperation of this nature should develop tremendous civic pride in this long-ovated facility and encourage greater citizen participation in its programs and their expansion.

President
