department's loyalty review board charged with weeding out Communists is a Republican—Gen. Conrad Snow of New Hampshire. He was appointed on the recommendation of GOP Sen. Styles Bridges, a backstage brain-truster for Senator McCarthy's attacks. Chairman of the top loyalty review board is also a Republican, Seth Richardson, who served under Hoover. Most of the lawyers under him are also Republican.

Neither Truman nor anyone else can overrule them . . . only the courts . . . Actually, Acheson has fired more state department employees than any other secretary of state . . . McCarthy's attacks have been almost as vitriolic as Moscow's. Here is its latest diatribe against Acheson, "This Fascist-like diplomat . . . a truly incorrigible liar . . . swindler . . . a hired lackey of the instigators of war who spent his scanty brains to belie truth, freedom and peace . . . Acheson's true masters are the banks and concerns who dream of looting the globe." . . . Acheson's family is worried over his terrific strain.

He is wondering whether he has not become a liability, that for the good of U. S. foreign policy he should resign . . . Writes another secretary of state, Henry D. Stimson, in the Hoover cabinet, about Senator McCarthy. "The man who seeks to gain political advantage from personal attack on a secretary of state is a man who seeks political advantage from damage to his country."

"FLYING SAUCERS"

Harassed over flying saucers, the air force now refers queries to the first chapter of the prophet Ezekial who saw a living wheel in the heavens. Airmen are not arguing with Ezekial and cast no doubt upon what he saw. But they do cast doubt on modern prophets. They say they have tracked down every flying saucer report, and there ain't no such animal.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, slightly gleeful at presidential seasickness, remind him; "Mr. President, modern streamliners, manned by competent union crews, run daily between Washington and Florida. And no little brown pills are required."

Two great Bible fans are fighting for the Republican senatorial nomination in New Hampshire. Sen. Charles Tobey and challenger Wes Powell are doing their best to outquote each other . . . Bradley Nash has written a book on Herbert Hoover's reforms.

Thomas W. Wilson In China Sea Maneuvers

As a crew member of the aircraft carrier USS Boxer, Thomas W. Wilson, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson of 25430 Power Road, Farmington, recently participated in joint United States-British naval maneuvers. Before entering the Navy in July, 1948, he was graduated from Farmington High School.

The exercises were held in the South China Sea off Luzon, Philippine Islands, by the Seventh Fleet, the 13th Air Force, which is based in the Philippines, and units of the British Far Eastern Fleet.

Before reporting to the Philippines, the Boxer spent a week in Yokoshuka, Japan.
