willing to go along with a $13-billion dollar budget for the sake of economy.

"In other words," suggested Massachusetts Senator Leverett Saltonstall, "as a good citizen you believe we should live within our means."

"Yes, but I would like to qualify that," Bradley hesitated.

"You don't want to qualify the good citizen part," smiled Saltonstall.

Then Bradley explained: "The eventual strength of our country depends upon its industrial capacity. We must not destroy that by spending too much from year to year. So if I came here recommending 30 billion or 40 billion for defense, you should start searching for a new chairman of the joint chiefs of staff."

"It is true that our forces — ground, air and navy — are not sufficient now to fight a major war," Bradley emphasized. "Nor do we expect to be sufficient for such a calamity by the end of fiscal year 1951," he continued. "But I feel that we are going to achieve the necessary forces to prevent a disastrous attack from crippling this nation. I also believe that we will be able to win a war if it comes."

He predicted that this country's "mobilization base" — its industrial potential, reserve forces and military education system — would "win a war if it is thrust upon us."

"This is a risk that we take," Saltonstall added the chief of staff.

UNIFICATION: Outspoken Adm. Dan Gallery, whose ideas about an all-powerful navy have got him into the military doghouse, was brooding over a fire that damaged his home.

"I don't blame it on the air force," he confided to an air force friend. "I think Secretary of Defense Johnson started it."

CONGRESS SKY-PILOT: New Chaplain Bernard Braskamp is probably the first chaplain in congressional history who does not use a prepared script in delivering the opening prayer before the house of representatives. When

Walled Lake Casino Opens For Dancing

Walled Lake Casino Ballroom will open for another season of dancing Friday, May 5, featuring some of the top "name" bands of the country.

Tex Benwick and his orchestra is the opening week end attraction with "muscle in the Miller mood." The Casino will operate Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays until June 14 when a Wednesday through Sunday schedule will go into effect.

Other bands booked for the ballroom in the near future include Frankie Carlo, Edie Howard, Blue Baron, Chuck Postel, Johnny Long and Guy Lombardo.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Harry Lewis, who have spent the last six months in Daytona Beach, Florida, will return to their home at 2340 West Seven Mile Road about the middle of May.

Rayburn recently complimented him on it the chaplain replied: "Mr. Speaker, I can't pray sincerely by reading something I have prepared. That would be telling the good Lord, 'Look, Lord, this is my prayer for tomorrow, so be ready for it.'"
