WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE PARK 1481-M

Mrs. M. E. Ault returned last Wednesday from a ten-day visit with the Johnsons near New London, Ohio. On the way home, she was the lunchtime guest of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Roberts in Monroe.

In honor of her birthday, several neighbor friends of Mrs. Christina Rehahn spent Monday evening with her at her home on Mayfield. A son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hardy, two grandsons, and a great grandson also called. At 10, a delicious birthday cake with plenty of appetizing accompaniments was served to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Altman from Detroit spent last Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Altman. The Joseph Sidelinkers, formerly of Mayfield Avenue, but recently of Plant City, Florida, left Florida May 8 and headed directly for Michigan. They have many friends and relatives to visit this summer, so will take their time in deciding where to reestablish themselves. A get-together of her old friends or a reception in the Neighborhood Church is planned for Mrs. Sidelinker when she visits West Point Park.

The sound of the tractor is now heard in the land. Folks are hastening to get gardens plowed.

Miss Esther Middlewood, from Kalamazoo, was visiting in West Point Park this last week. Mr. Kitchen, from Lansing, was recently visiting his sister, Mrs. Ernest Tallman.

Mrs. Forrest Ault of Hubbard Avenue and Mrs. Edwin Johnson, with her three daughters of Clarita, left Friday morning for a few days visit with cousins in Akron.

The Schults young folks, of Shady-side Avenue, invited their friends in and had a very successful wolver roast on the grounds near their home Thursday evening.

Mrs. R. Gibbons, of Hubbard Avenue, returned Thursday from a vacation visit in Northern Michigan. The W. S. C. S. of the Livonia Methodist Church is holding its annual election of officers at the church Thursday afternoon, May 11. Mrs. S. Shaffer of Farmington Road spent some time in Northville Saturday.

In preparation for Mother's Day, the young folks who meet in the Neighborhood Church at 7 Friday evenings constructed carnations from facial tissues. By the aid of lipstick and crayons, some were colored a delicate pink. In their Bible study, there was a friendly contest, each endeavoring to give the best version of the "Noah and the Ark" story.

There was a Prayer and Bible Study meeting under the sponsorship of the Neighborhood Church at the home of Mrs. Christina Rehahn last Thursday evening. Next Thursday, it is planned to meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welsh. After that, until cold weather comes again, the Neighborhood Meeting House will be open at 7:30 each Thursday evening for an informal service.

Hubbard Avenue, from Pembroke to Eight Mile, is now in better condition than in all its history. The county obligingly sent out a scraper, cooperating with Hubbard Avenue residents, who chipped in to have a sufficient amount of gravel spread to insure easy, safe driving. Business interests of residents made it imperative that the work be done promptly without waiting to take their turn with the many projects usually "wished on" the county.

The Sunshine Sisters met in the Neighborhood Church Wednesday afternoon. The devotional service included a question period dealing with motherhood in the Bible. Several ladies read interesting clipplings. An original poem by Mrs. George Ring, eldest daughter of Mrs. John Varhol, was read and enjoyed by those present.

A Sunshine meeting will be held in the Neighborhood Church on Wednesday afternoon, May 17, at 2 p.m. "Home" will be the topic and each lady is requested to bring her favorite housekeeping hint.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ackerman from Royal Oak were Thursday night guests of Mrs. Ackerman's sister, Mrs. Emerson Ault.

A group of Detroit friends were dinner guests Wednesday of Miss Nina Higelow on Pembroke.

Janet Grant of Farmington Road is reported convalescing from measles.

Honoring Mrs. Velve Barnes of Farmington Road, Mrs. Carson Baldwin and Mrs. Homer Coolman arranged a neighborhood "Get Acquainted Party", held last Tuesday afternoon at the Coolman Residence on Shady-side Avenue. In anticipation of a coming blessed event, Mrs. Barnes was presented with a baby carriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Wolfe entertained the choir of the Livonia Methodist Church at their home on Shady-side last Sunday evening. Practically all the tickets are sold for the Mother and Daughter banquet to be held in the Livonia Methodist Church Monday night, May 15. Anne Campbell will be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Ray have arrived from Washington state for a vacation visit with Mrs. Ray's parents, the Bolyards, and other friends and relatives in this section.

Roy Dent, from Detroit, spent several days of last week with his daughter, Mrs. George Sandau and her family, on Hubbard Avenue. The community is feeling great sympathy for Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong, whose elder sister, Miss Maude Gallagher, died at Glenbrook Hospital Friday morning. For several years she had resided with the Armstrongs on Mayfield Avenue. Poor health prevented her from mingling socially with neighbors and friends, but she had the sincere admiration and respect of those privileged to know her. Services were held from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home in Farmington Sunday afternoon, but the body was taken Monday to Everett, Michigan, for interment.

Frank A. Zornick, who for a long time lived at 19912 Farmington Road, died after a long illness Thursday. His wife, two married daughters and two grandchildren survive. Funeral services were held at the Howe-Peterson Funeral Home in Dearborn. Interment was at Glen Eden Cemetery.

Hold Training Course For Day Camp Counselors

An indoor training course for day camp counselors will be held May 12 at the Baptist Church from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. It was announced last week. The course will be held to prepare counselors for the annual Girl Scout Day Camp.

The day camp will provide complete camping experience for Farmington girls without taking them from home overnight. The girls join the camp early in the morning, stay all day, and return to their homes in the evening.

Prospective counselors are asked to bring their own lunch to the training course.

Be methodical if you would succeed in business, or in anything. Have a work for every moment, and mind the moment's work.
