Grahams Celebrate 50th Anniversary Art Auction Is Planned

A week of events has been planned to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Smith G. Graham, who now make their home in Florida.

The celebrations will begin Sunday, April 1, with a family dinner, and conclude with an open house Sunday, April 8, in the home of their son, James M. Graham, 15978 Ryland, Redford Township.

The Grahams have two other children, George Graham of Arcola, Livonia, and Anna Janowicz of St. Clair Shores. There are eight grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham were married in Brantford, Ont., on April 2, 1923. They both came from Scotland and met at a Bible conference in Guelph, Ont.

They have been affiliated with Ward Memorial Church in Detroit and with Ward United Presbyterian Church in Livonia.

Graham was employed by the Ford Motor Co. and the Michigan Central Railway, before establishing his own upholstery business. He retired in 1950.

The Grahams live in St. Petersburg and return to Michigan each summer, staying at the homes of their children. They renew friendships and rivalries in the Detroit Lawn Bowling Club. In Florida, Graham continues his interest in lawn bowling and is associated with two clubs.

FARMINGTON The Young 'n Marrieds Club of Adas Shalom will hold its second annual champagne art auction on Sunday, April 8. The event will be held in the Park West Galleries, 24151 Telegraph, Southfield, beginning with a preview at 7:30 p.m. The auctioneer is Albert Scaglione. Tickets at $1 will be available at the door.

MR. AND MRS. SMITH G. GRAHAM
Sorority Has 'State Day'

Mrs. Ann Yeamans of Southfield is presiding over the annual "State Day" observance of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority in Ann Arbor Saturday, March 31.

Mrs. Yeamans is Province VIII president.

More than 200 Michigan affiliates of the national sorority are expected to attend the meeting, hosted by the Ann Arbor alumnae and colgate members at the University of Michigan.

The sorority members will meet at 1 p.m. in Win Schuler's restaurant for a luncheon, followed by a talk by Helen Wipton Jenkins, Zeta international secretary.

Class In Cake Decorating Set

An advanced class in cake decorating, beginning April 3 in Stevenson High School, will be part of the Livonia adult education program this spring.

The class will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in room 203 and will run for eight weeks. Instruction will include making of varied flowers, piping, gum paste and piping gel on rice paper. There also will be ideas for special occasion cakes. Call the Livonia Schools to register.
