One of our friends and a proud owner of a 1950 Studebaker Champion, recently associated himself with the Boy Scouts. He told us he liked kids and besides he had read that one way to keep young to be associated with young people. After the first hike, he tells us, the quickest way to drop dead is to try and keep up with them.

Expression Students Give Recital At Home

Mrs. William Lancaster took a number of her expression students to the Baptist Children's Home at 12 Mile and Greenfield Roads Sunday afternoon. Musical numbers were given by Karen Russell, Mary Howe and Delores Dames. Readings and costume monologues were given by Dennis Allen, Lois Barge, Alice Lancaster, Barbara Bratton, Delene Dames, Joan Langhorne, Mary Howe, Shirley Grundy and Ailyn Gardner. Following the program, the board members of the home furnished the group refreshments.

Unless your name is Job, you'll like not having to wait long for service on your television set if it came from Farmington Radio and Television Service. Across from Keweenaw on Grand River, Phone 0047.

ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

One of our friends and a proud owner of a 1950 Studebaker Champion, recently associated himself with the Boy Scouts. He told us he liked kids and besides he had read that one way to keep young to be associated with young people. After the first hike, he tells us, the quickest way to drop dead is to try and keep up with them.

Well that's not for us, our longest walk is to the coffee shop. If we have to go to the country, we'll drive. By the way, the country is truly grand this time of the year. The air is wonderful, the trees and shrubbery beautiful and if you are driving the sort of car we drive, you will want to keep right on riding. Why not take an afternoon sometime this week and try the sideroads of our state. You'll come home feeling fresh and invigorated.

Now we must get some advertising in this column. If we don't people will accuse us of going literary, especially Bill the ton's truck man who sells half, one and one and a half ton Studebaker trucks. "Shadow" (that's Bill) says we don't talk truck enough. When we were sleeping till our Dads put us to sleep telling our Bed stories. When he ran out of stories he just kept repeating "Bear, Bear, Bear". We figured we could do the same truck, truck. Bill thinks so too, as long as we use the name Studebaker once in a while. "After all" says Bill, "when you say Studebaker and Truck together, you've said all you can say about trucks. There just isn't anything else."

Follow in the shop didn't show up for work one rainy morning last week. To us that he was awake, saw the rain and developed a terrible case of inner-spring fever.
