The Mississippi flyway states, which includes Michigan, had 42 per cent of the duck hunters and 48 per cent of the kill in the United States last season. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service reports this is a one per cent increase in hunters and a five per cent increase in the kill.

July and August days are ripe for forest fires. More than 90 per cent of them start with carelessness.

WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

thereby violating the 4th amendment.

However, the slow-speaking McNerny, a Catholic, conscientious, and with the map of Ireland written all over his face, gave a graphic account during his first closed-door session with the senators. He told, among other things, how he had persuaded Judge James Proctor to hold special court on Saturday, September 23, 1946, in order to handle the Amerasia case.

At first Judge Proctor had demurred at holding court on Saturday, but the reason for the special session, McNerny explained to senators, was because one defendant, Larsen, had discovered the FBI illegally entered his apartment, had filed a motion to dismiss, and McNerny feared other defendants would get wise and also move to dismiss.

Therefore, he had to act fast. The chief defendant, Philip Jaffe, had hinted that he might plead "guilty." So McNerny immediately got hold of his attorney and put across an agreement that the justice department would accept a fine if Jaffe would plead guilty. Jaffe's lawyer and Larsen's lawyer had a chance to confer and Jaffe learned about the illegal search, the government would not be able to convict anyone.

Therefore he phoned the District of Columbia clerk of the court and asked him to withhold from the press Larsen's motion to dismiss, for fear Jaffe would hear about it. This was on Friday.

The clerk replied that once a court paper is filed, it becomes a public record.

Fortunately, only a small squib about the case appeared in the Washington Star on Friday afternoon. By Saturday morning, however, Jaffe's attorney realized that the entire prosecution was about to collapse, and grumbled about going through with his agreement to plead Jaffe "guilty." However, he finally did so.

NEWSPAPER CHAIN TACTICS
One interesting fact about the Amerasia case is that the illegal search by the OSS and FBI has been well known to the Scripps-Howard newspaper chain for some time. However, when the American Society of Newspaper Editors met here April 28, Roy Howard, head of the chain, instructed his editors to stage a steady campaign on the Amerasia case and for Senator McCarthy and withhold the fact the case would have failed in court.
