Michigan Mirror (Continued from Page Two) Added to finance the bridge, would retire the bridge bond issue and leave the crossing then toll-free. The legislature authorized a study commission.

Add to the list of total losses from the University of Michigan fire that destroyed Haven Hall, the results of months of research for the state reorganization study.

One of the 27 state government functions now being studied by experts are state agencies dealing with labor, workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation.

Assistant Provost John A. Perkins, former state controller who is director of the project, Robert S. Ford, who is head at the university Bureau of Government and Gordon Gary of the Bureau of Government had just completed their report when — poof! — it all went up in smoke.

Ford and Gary are now trying to put down on paper as much as they can remember.

Michigan's 45,000 dairymen are observing June Dairy Month by pointing to those facts: Cash receipts of milk products were near $200 million in 1949 for 20 per cent of Michigan's total farm income. The investment in production, processing and delivery exceeds a billion dollars.

Agricultural economist of Michigan State College forecast "slightly lower" farm produce prices in the second half of 1950, as compared with 1949. Farm income nationally is down 20 per cent from the 1948 peak.

Michigan's automobile industry, and GM's five-year peace pact with CIO, is leading the nation's prosperity parade at present. Gas output is forecast at seven million (including trucks). Retail trade is due to be better than 1949. However, consumers are still calling for reduction in prices, and the dependency of the 1950 boom on automobiles and housing has prompted several economists to recommend caution.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh Maybe This'll Wake Us Up! Harper says: "Hold on, Joe. Let's talk this out, over supper and a glass of beer at Andy's." He pointed out that those men aren't criminals. Just careless, like a lot of us seem to be getting these days, judging from the trash you see along roadsides. From where I sit, this near accident may be the lesson we need to make us stop littering our roads — and start showing a little tolerant consideration for our neighbors! Joe Marsh
