Park Staffs Ready For Biggest Year Yet

Recent appointments and transfers of park managers complete the staffs of state parks and recreation areas for what promises to be the biggest season on record.

The parks and recreation division of the conservation department announces that Cletus D. Balbough has been transferred to Brimley state park, as manager, from Palms Book state park where he was replaced by H. Robert Terry, ranger at Otsego Lake.

Lee S. Cadwell, formerly manager at Hoelt state park, is now manager at Onaway. Harold B. Guilleme, formerly manager of the Proud Lake recreation area, is filling the position of manager at Rochester - Utica recreation area left vacant by the death of Lee Cummings. Edward W. Kindinger has replaced Guilleme at Proud Lake.

Noel W. Spore has been transferred to Otsego Lake state park as manager from the same position at Onaway.

Playground Participants Tell Of Summer Activities

Everyone is interested in the activities of the children attending the summer playground. Here are some of the letters, written by the children, about their activities at the different schools.

William Grace
The first day we had quite an enrollment of 55 and we now have 70. We have a piano and have been singing and square dancing. Tuesday, June 27, we had a treasure hunt. Don and Ann hid suckers, gum, candy, toys and other things. We had fun finding them in the grass, bushes, trees and bushes.

Wednesday, June 28, we saw the Liberty Bell. All the kids, even the little ones, got to ring the bells. Thursday, June 29, we were in the help for savings bonds.

On Thursday we went swimming and had a wonderful time. The zoo, where we went last Friday, I think is nice and I hope to see it again this year. I liked the Joe Mendel show best of all.

In the horsehoe tournament on Monday Mable Young won for the girls. The boys were first — Ronald Williams, second — Larry Lynch, third — Bill Landacre.

There was no recreation the 4th of July, so Wednesday we had a

Program Set For MSC Homemakers' Meeting

About 1,000 Michigan homemakers will leave summer household chores from July 18 to 21 for an educational vacation at the Michigan State Conference at Michigan State College.

Topflight attractions, including Edgar Guest, Michigan's famous poet, are scheduled for the annual event. Margaret Harris, acting state home demonstration leader, announces that Mr. Guest will be the speaker for the annual banquet which is being revived this year. It will be held on Thursday night in the dining hall of the beautiful new Shaw dormitory, which will also house the conference guests.

M. D. Graham, past president of Lions International, is scheduled for "30 minutes you'll never forget," on Friday morning. His topic will be in keeping with the conference theme, "Know Your Michigan." Other related talks will be given by Paul Bagwell, past president of the National Junior Chamber of Commerce and MSC department head, and by Edward C. Prophet, MSC geography professor. Bagwell is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon and Prophet for Thursday morning.

Mrs. John B. Martin, Jr., writer and lecturer, will discuss "Your Community Is Your World," on Wednesday morning.

Classes in more than 20 different subjects taught by MSC faculty, devotionals, and an outstanding speaker are standard features of the morning programs. Section meetings in seven different subjects, another speaker, and tours of the campus complete the afternoon sessions.

Registration is scheduled for Tuesday morning and the annual business meeting of the Home Demonstration Council for Wednesday afternoon. Home economics extension members are automatically members of the council.

HOLD TEST TRIAL FOR ALLEGED KILLING OF 50-ODD DEER

Trial of a suit to collect damages for 50-odd deer allegedly killed on a southern Crawford county farm will be heard in Grayling Circuit Court.

A test case, the civil action will be the conservation department's first effort to get a legal ruling whether it can collect damages for the killing of deer, and to have a court place a cash value on the animals.

Defendants are Dr. Bernard M. Godfrey of Traverse City and Bernard Maurer who lives on the farm. Maurer was acquitted on a criminal charge of killing deer by a jury in the Grayling circuit court last April on his appeal from a prior justice court conviction.

Dr. Godfrey, against whom no criminal charge was brought, testified during Maurer's circuit court trial that he (Godfrey) had shot the deer on a permit issued by the department. Such permits are issued on proper showing of farmers and orchardists that deer are damaging crops.

Deer killed under such permits must be turned over to the department, which gives the meat to state institutions.

In this instance, the department claims that none of the 50-odd carcasses were turned over to proper authorities. Antlers and other evidence that 50-some deer had been shot were found in outbuildings on the farm when officers armed with a search warrant visited the place.

Nicholas V. Olds, assistant attorney general assigned to the conservation department, says the civil action provides an opportunity for the placing of a cash value on deer.

Warren G. Harding was the first president to ride to his inaugural in an automobile.

Obituary

Clyde McDermott
Mr. McDermott, 80, died July 2 at his home, 18915 Westlake, after a long illness. Mr. McDermott was born in Farmington Township and lived here all his life.

He is survived by his wife, Edith, a brother, William, who lives in Seattle, and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home with interment at North Farmington Cemetery.

29 State Owned Lots Sold At Public Auction

Twenty-nine of the 30 state-owned lots in Macomb county offered in a June land sale were sold for $10,500, an average of $362 per lot.

The lots, which had reverted to state ownership for nonpayment of taxes, were sold at public auction.

Band School
We do a lot of things at the playground. The kids have been playing horsehoes, baseball, football, croquet, basketball, and checkers this past week. We like to play checkers a lot. Marty Baumgartner is the checker champion. He is always losing. He seems to be having very bad luck in checkers.

Paints and crayons were also available for those who wished to use them. Wednesday we went into Farmington to see the Liberty Bell. I saw its crack. Some of the kids rang the bell more than once.

Thursday Don, Ann, Jerry, Lore and Mr. Nuss took us out to beautiful Kent Lake with the William Grace playground. We would get out of the water because it was too cold, and then as soon as we were dressed, the sun would come out. The water was warm then.

Friday we went to the zoo and saw every animal. Everyone saw the Joe Mendel show. The last thing we did was ride the train back.

George Green had his tonsils removed last week. He is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Banfield and daughter Clara called on Mrs. Charles Heikler Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Giegler and family, of Howell, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heikler are the parents of a baby girl born Saturday, July 7, at Pontiac General Hospital.

Grace Heikler spent Saturday evening and night with her sister, Bertha O'Day.

William Miller is spending a few weeks with his brother and family at Howell.

Mrs. Starr Graham spent Thursday with "Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heikler.

Beverly Procknow is spending this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Starr Graham, while her mother, Mrs. Alfred Procknow, is having an operation.

The Graham reunion will be held at Lawrence Giegler's home at Hartland July 16.

Of the herbs which have survived in cooking, parsley is the most popular. Dill is next. Tarragon, which is the favorite flavoring for vinegar, is a tender perennial, but there is an annual form which gives much the same flavoring.
