Robert Hunter and daughter, Mary Margaret, from Detroit, spent Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault on Mayfield Avenue.

The Immons of Hubbard Avenue have spent this week in northern Michigan.

Mrs. Imogene Dixon, lately of Farmington Road, now of California, has returned. She enjoys her new home but greatly misses old friends and neighbors.

Coast Guardsman Wayne Ault, stationed at Cleveland, was home last week end, including Monday.

Horace Gravelle, formerly of this section but now of Brightmoor, was injured in a fall two weeks ago and has been moved from the Ypsilanti Hospital to his home. However, it will be at least a month before he can get back to his work and meanwhile it may be necessary for him to return to the hospital for treatments.

Mrs. Russell Ault, of Shadydale, left Sunday evening for a two week stay with her mother, Mrs. Lily Sheets at Columbia City, Indiana. Her sister, Mrs. Homer Coolman, also of Shadydale, returned home from Indiana Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graham of Mayfield Avenue visited West Branch last Sunday. Their daughter and son, Wanda and Dale, who had been visiting relatives in that section, returned home with them, a seven pound 3 ounce baby girl, Larrie Lynn, was born Thursday, July 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Webster of Parker Avenue.

Mrs. Spencer, with her baby daughter, from Wayne, were guests last week end of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vance of Mayfield Avenue.

Saturday, July 22, at Sessions Hospital in Northville, an 8 pound son, Michael Norman, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Borden of Parker Avenue. Mother and baby arrived home Wednesday and are doing very nicely.

Mrs. M. E. Ault was a visitor at Sessions Hospital Thursday evening.

At Sessions Hospital Thursday morning, July 27, a 5 pound 7 ounce son, Dan Hugh, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita Avenue.

Russell Kline and son Ronald, of Parker Avenue, were guests last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Talmage spent this last week at Bishop Lake, where she was a craft and song leader for the Farmington Baptist Girl Scouts who have been at camp.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Reddy and their son, John, of West Branch, left last Tuesday for a two week vacation in the mid-west. Mrs. Reddy's mother, Mrs. Anna Gleason, who has been visiting here, returned with them to her Indiana home.

David McMillan, from Detroit, was the guest last week end of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sidelinker spent last Sunday afternoon with a married daughter and her husband in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol called on the Gravelles in Brightmoor last Sunday.

Mrs. James Simpson, of Mayfield Avenue, spent last Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Brumman and family, in Norway. Lars, youngest son of the Brummans, has been ill but is now much improved. Edward Brumman, who has been at camp with the National Guard, was visiting his family Sunday.

Dr. Lorin M. Hotchkiss of Seven Mile Road is now on vacation. Mrs. Ernest Tallant and her sister visited him in Ann Arbor Wednesday. The Carrolls formerly resided on Mayfield. Miss Dolores Carroll, eldest daughter of the Carrolls, has been very ill but is now much improved. She is to be born next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dieble, of Shadydale Avenue, were in Detroit Tuesday evening attending a birthday dinner given Mrs. Dieble by her married daughter.

Homer Middlewood, from Detroit, was calling on relatives and old neighbors in this section last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vorhees, of Shadydale, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gredig, of Detroit, on a trip to Chicago last week end.

Karen Grundy, who was at her home on Hubbard Avenue, was born Thursday, July 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Webster of Parker Avenue.
