Jefferson Jottings

By MRS. NORMAN MOORE
2717 Jefferson, Phone 2762-J

On Sunday afternoon, July 30, little Linda Ann Youngblood celebrated her first birthday at the home of her grandparents, the Lathams, of Independence Street. About 15 guests were present and ice cream and cake was served after the presents were opened. Linda Ann surprised the guests by being able to walk. This big event started a week previous to her party and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Youngblood were quite proud of the fact.

It's a baby boy for the Henry Mitchells of Jefferson Street. The new son arrived Monday afternoon, July 31, at Mt. Carmel Hospital and tipped the scales at 7 pounds 7 ounces. His mother is the former Joan Putnam of Worcester, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Ross Moore of Beatrice Street had her cousin, Mrs. Hazel McCarthy, spend a few days with her. Saturday evening the Ross Moors had the Martin Schuman family from Woodale, Illinois, visiting them. Also present was Mrs. Schuman's father, Graman Needham of Fendale, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noble of Woodland Drive had Miss Irene Noble of New Haven, Connecticut, spending her vacation with them. It's a 5 pound 8 ounce baby girl named Pamela Kay for the Robert William family of Wayne, Michigan. Mrs. Marion Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lambert of Milburn Street. Pamela arrived on July 29.

Mr. and Mrs. John Devins and their children, Barbara Ann, Deanne and Dennis, were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moore of Jefferson Street.

Sunday was a very busy day for Corky and Patsy Moore. They spent the day at Four Mile Lake with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moore, and their aunt and uncle, the Edward Moores of Goddard Road, in Romulus, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Block and little daughter returned home the middle of the week from a few days' visit in northern Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis, of Shady Side Avenue, left this week end for a vacation in northern Michigan.

Mrs. E. W. Stange and son, Edward, are spending a few days with the Judds near Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Brown, of Shady Side Avenue, has her granddaughter, Lois, with her for a few months.

While their new home is being completed, the Kramers and their little daughter are with Mrs. Kraus, uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunnam, of Farmington Road.

A car on fire summoned the Fire Department Friday afternoon. These instances seem rather frequent.

George Thorne, from Ypsilanti, was one of the callers at the Clinton Ash home last Sunday evening. Sandra Houtz, Farmington Road, was reported on the sick list last week.

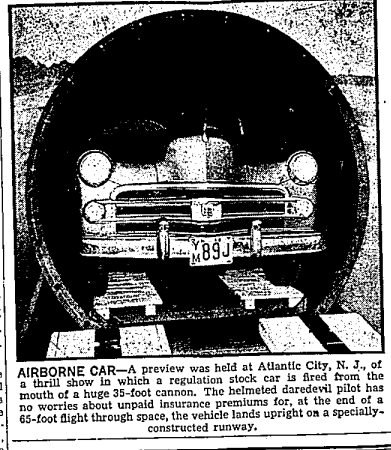

Arthur Muir, Shady Side Avenue, was on vacation this last week. Thursday two of his sisters, one from Chicago and one from Detroit, were guests at the Muir home.

Mrs. Robert Padon from Monroe, spent last Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roberts.

From California we hear that Mr. and Mrs. Guilmette, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mercer, recently of Seven Mile Road, arrived in Hawthorne, California, where he is to be stationed. For several weeks prior to departure the young couple had been guests of the Mercers.

Mrs. George W. Sandau and her four daughters were visiting in Northville last Tuesday. Mrs. Sandau called on Mrs. Norman Block at Sessions Hospital.

The McVicar children, who were down with the whooping cough, are now out again with their young friends.

AIRBORNE CAR—A preview was held at Atlantic City, N. J., of the "Airborne Car" in which a regulation stock car is fired from the mouth of a huge 35-foot cannon. The helmeted daredevil pilot has no worries about unpaid insurance premiums for, at the end of a 65-foot flight through space, the vehicle lands upright on a specially-constructed runway.

Mrs. Edith Sarantos received a letter from Greece from Angelos Sarantos and Mrs. Edith Graham in honor of Mrs. Graham's 33rd birthday Friday afternoon.

A quiet home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heliker Friday, August 4, when their son, Stan, and Betty Monger, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert, were married by Rev. Whaley of Wilson Baptist Church. The bride was dressed in a street length blue dress and carried a bouquet of carnations and gardenias. The groom's mother, who is a fosterer, was with Mrs. Kraus. The grandmother, Mrs. Edith Graham, wore a corsage of red roses, a birthday gift from her grandson. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Graham. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lambert, Cora McDonald of Novi, Mr. and Mrs. Jene Munger, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker and family, and Mrs. Edith Graham, Wanda Graham and Donna Graham, cousins.

Mrs. William Knapp entertained Mrs. Anna Westlake, Mrs. Edith Sarantos and Mrs. Edith Graham in honor of Mrs. Graham's 33rd birthday Friday afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Malpass are home after a visit to California. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cox have left on a trip to the northern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. German have arrived in Oregon where they are visiting.

Mrs. William Knapp entertained Mrs. Anna Westlake, Mrs. Edith Sarantos and Mrs. Edith Graham in honor of Mrs. Graham's 33rd birthday Friday afternoon.

FORESTERS SCOUT ROSCOMMON AREA FOR BUD-WORM PEST

Conservation department foresters are scouting state forest land and jack pine in the Roscommon area for infestations of the spruce budworm.

Working with Federal and Michigan State College entomologists, foresters are attempting to determine the size of the area affected and an estimate of the bud-worm population. If the bud-worm infestation is serious enough, the survey party will spray early next summer before the insect can do any appreciable amount of damage.

Investigation is underway in the Higgins lake forest but may spread to the Au Sable forest before the survey is ended.

The insect damages pine by eating the foliage.

Further checks are necessary to prove the actual effectiveness of the experiment.

SHORTEN TESTS FOR RENEWAL OF DRIVER PERMITS

Licensed drivers in Michigan will hereafter not be required to submit to written and oral examinations when renewing their permits or for chauffeur permits, under a change in procedure authorized by State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard.

The change will enable driver license examiners to devote more time to beginner drivers as well as eliminate the provision under which licensed drivers repeated tests which they had once passed successfully. Drivers renewing licenses, however, will still have to pass vision, color and hearing tests. Persons seeking their first license will, of course, have to pass all of the tests as in the past.

When initiated the purpose of the present system was to make certain that no driver was licensed who did not have the necessary knowledge and skill to drive properly.

"We feel now that the benefits from that procedure have been accomplished to the point where we can simplify renewals," Leonard said. "This will also permit giving more time to beginners to see that they get off to a good start as safe drivers."

Of the 847,886 persons who took driver license examinations in Michigan last year, more than 90 percent were renewing their applications. The total also represents an average of more than 4,000 examinations for each driver license examiner. There is an equivalent of 187 full time examiners in the state.

Only six of 43 states reporting to the National Safety Council in a special poll have any form of examination for renewing driver licenses. In addition, with the exception of Michigan the six states have required only partial examinations.

The abbreviation of renewal tests in Michigan will not affect the suspension, revocation or restriction of licenses of drivers who accumulate bad driving records. This will follow the same procedure as in the past.
