

LOUISE SMITH, KEITH WIELAND SPEAK VOWS

White gladioli and astors banked the altar for the double-ring ceremony which wed Ellen Louise Smith to Walter Keith Wieland. The Rev. A. Stanley Stone solemnized the August 5 service at the Methodist Church.

The bride spoke her vows in a gown of net and patterned lace. The bodice was of lace underlined with slipper satin. The skirt was fashioned with a giraffe band holding the full circular net skirt. Seed pearls softened the crown-like tulle which held her fingertip veil. White roses and forget-me-nots centered with an orchid completed her costume.

Fern Smith, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, wearing an aqua gown of taffeta with the bustled back. Tallanna roses and the bouquet. Josephine Tierney, the bridesmaid, wore a yellow gown patterned after that of the maid of honor, and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses with baby mums.

Jack Clark served as best man and John Buck and Jack Haller ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chancy Smith of 2825 Farmington Road are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. William Wieland of 2115 Middlebelt are the groom's parents.

The groom's mother selected a dress of aqua silk crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of rebrum lilies.

Assisted by Mrs. Merle Berdick at the organ, Bobby Isley sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because".

A reception was held in the church immediately after the wedding. Punch, layer cake, small sandwiches, ice cream and coffee were served to the guests by members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The couple left for a motor trip to northern Michigan. They will be at their new home at 21700 Mid-diebelt about sometime this week.

The bride is employed by the Western Electric Company and is a 1947 graduate of Farmington High School. The groom is employed at Quigley Machine Products and is also a Farmington graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Joseph of Flint were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Jensen Sunday. Mrs. Willie Ferline from Detroit was a Friday guest of the Jensens.

The case of "THE BATTERED BAG"

D. CREPIT

CONROY'S MARKET

"I'm ready for the sack-tarium and it's all the fault of Conroy's Market."

"If they didn't sell their stuff so cheap, I'd be an able bodied bag today. But, really, how much can a guy take?"

"I've been in lots of markets because my boss likes to shop the whole town looking for food bargains, but I'd always come home half loaded, if you'll excuse the expression."

"Then she found out about Conroy's Market. That did it. Why, the first trip I came home loaded to the gills. Next time, the same thing. I was in a rut—always going to the same place and coming home the same way."

"We've never gone to any other market since. Man, this Conroy's must be some place to make my boss shop there for everything. But me? I'm crumpled."

VERDICT: Plaintiff to be confined to home of haggard handbags.

CONCLUSION: Regular customers carry heavy duty bags to cart home bargains like this.
