WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman of Mayfield Avenue visited with relatives in Jackson, September 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and children, Marcella and Nelson, attended the Uptown family reunion in London, Canada, last week end.

The Harold McViears of Shady-side Avenue spent Labor Day with relatives near Day City.

Mr. and Mrs. William Soos and family of Shady-side Avenue were in Chicago for the Labor Day week end.

Herman Keyser of Huntington Woods was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault and other relatives of the neighborhood last Sunday evening. Mrs. Keyser is visiting with friends in New York and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult and daughters, Patty and Janet, were in northern Michigan, visiting near the Straits last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judd and their four children, from near Grose Point, were calling on the Edward Stanges Labor Day.

Mrs. George Branstetter from Hickory, Pennsylvania, was the guest last week end of her nephew, Russell Ault and family, and other relatives in this section.

Bob and Bill Binsley, from Northville, were visiting friends and old neighbors in the community last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault of Brentwood Avenue were guests last Sunday of the Thomes, near Ypsilanti.

Visitors at the State Fair last Sunday included Mrs. Virginia Oman and daughter, Ruth Ann; Helen Ruth Ault of Brentwood Avenue; Shirley Ault of Shady-side Avenue, and several visiting cousins from Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ault and Mr. and Mrs. Marie Adams with their young son, Clark, the Posners of Farmington Road attended the State Fair last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts and their daughters, Beth Ann and Mary Lynn, were Labor Day dinner guests of Mrs. Roberts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman and children, Wanda, Homer and Ruth Ann, returned last week end from a vacation visit to California. At Los Angeles they were able to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tallman, former residents of Mayfield Avenue.

Obituary

Mrs. John R. Walters
Mrs. John R. Walters of 33703 Oakland Ave., a longtime resident of Farmington, died Sunday morning, September 19, at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital following a short illness.

George A. Walters was born August 6, 1886, in Litonia Township, the daughter of Asa R. and Ada Green Roberts. She was educated at the Livonia and Farmington rural schools, and on October 30, 1907, was united in marriage to John R. Walters. Mr. and Mrs. Walters have spent all of their married life in Farmington. Mr. Walters and his son operate the Novi Supply Company.

Mrs. Walters was a member of the Farmington Methodist Church and a Past Matron of the Farmington Chapter of O.E.S. No. 239. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Thayer Funeral Home with Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiating, and interment took place in the Clarencetown Cemetery.

Surviving besides Mr. Walters are one daughter, Viola, and son, Donald, both of Farmington. She also leaves two grandchildren.

More than 100 persons from all over Michigan are expected to attend the second annual Layman's Conference on Nursing at Michigan State College October 10.
