SUNSHINE LADY URGES VISITS TO SHUT-INS

"Comfort ye, comfort ye, my people, saith your God" (Isaiah 40:1)

Many times comfort can come to a shut-in by a friendly note from an unknown friend. Perhaps it's not so much the card, but the fact that someone unknown to them "cares".

Mr. Arthur Masak, 22211 Verno, Detroit 15, is going through shut-in days.

As is Conrad Schmidt, 22030 Maxine, St. Clair Shores, Michigan. Just a friendly note can do much for Mrs. H. Hanson, 8150 Witherby, Detroit 4.

Bill Sullivan, c/o Cor. Division, Divine Heart, Donaldson, Indiana, is a young lad from this area who has given his life to his church. He would welcome a note or card now and then.

Susan Glass, 43 Delaware, Detroit 2, is a shut-in due to polio.

Before the fall frost comes, won't you try to bring an added bit of happiness by taking some of your garden flowers over to the Wayne County Hospital?

In "A" Building alone, some of those sweet old ladies have been there for a great many years. If it weren't for outsiders coming in now and then, their suffering would be that much greater. For doctors will tell you that loneliness and that "not being wanted" feeling is frequently worse than the illness they have.

Your first trip will bring you such a good feeling that you'll want to go again. And no matter to what church you belong, won't you take something along that line to reach out to those who are shut-in? Perhaps last Sunday's Sunday School papers?

You see, in the winter months it's no trouble to get someone to go once a week and sing and visit. But when the days are nice, those shut-ins are forgotten for a while.

They are looking for your visit — don't let them down. Go to 4302, ask for Fran, and she will tell you of the others. Or just look around you. Names are not important.

ality of any change of party names. This realignment is legally possible now. The rules of the senate and the rules of the house speak of the majority and of the minority rather than of Democrats and Republicans; and members of congress are elected under the election laws of the 48 states.

"Similarly," he continues, "presidential electors are elected under the laws of the several states. The 1948 'secession' of the Democratic parties in four southern states illustrates the method and the possibilities of extending realignment to the election of the president."

"FRONT" ORGANIZATION

Williams has already formed a "front" organization to carry out his plan. He calls it the Citizens Political Committee, though he admits frankly "its title does not disclose its purpose." Williams uses the Remington Rand Company, room 1200, 314 Fourth Avenue, New York City as a headquarters — though he is not now on Remington Rand's payroll.

In a private letter, dated May 12, Williams names ex-Senator Albert Hawkes of New Jersey as the leading money raiser.

"Senator Hawkes has agreed to handle that (money) raising for us," Williams writes. "I am not going to initiate any new prospects, and have turned over to Hawkes the names of the men he knows whom I've seen or corresponded with on the subject."

In another letter, dated May 1, Williams also writes: "Two things need to be done to put the realignment proposal in shape for presentation to a group for substantial financial support (about $200,000 for a one-year budget). Harold E. Talbot has agreed to arrange that group meeting. The two things are required by southern senate leaders. They are: (1) A rather detailed plan for the joint-nomination in 1952, and (2) a merging on paper of committee seniorities of Re-

Republicans and southern Democrats.

CONGRESSIONAL REACTION

As a sample of private congressional reaction, Williams received a letter from Senator Mundt, dated May 16, and addressed "Dear Harvie."

"I am still inclined to believe that the merger at the congressional level has too many practical barriers to make it feasible at this juncture and that the most realistic approach is one which would handle this matter in the electoral college," the senator from South Dakota suggested.

Honored By Life Insurance Company

The Nylic Star Club is an organization of leading members of New York Life's field force of 5,000 agents from throughout the United States and Canada. Mrs. Erickson has been invited to attend an educational conference of the Star Club September 15 - 18 at Bigwin Inn, Lake-of-Bays, Ontario, Canada, at which Home Office staff members and outstanding agents will speak on current developments in the life insurance business.

Looking for a Money Saver?

Better Buy Buick!

YOU CAN SEE here how smart it is — don't have to be told that it's the most quickly identified car on the road today.

You probably know that the engine under that broad bonnet is a Fireball straight-eight valve-in-head engine and a lively stepper in any company.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT — This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) absorbs repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and gorging easier.

You can check the abundance of its room by the simple expedient of taking the family and trying out its spaciousness at the nearest Buick dealer's—and a very few minutes on the open road will satisfy you that all-coil springing, low-pressure tires and Buick's torque-tube drive really do produce a ride that is matchless for its soft comfort.

BUT RIGHT NOW, it may be that the money angle is the thing uppermost in your mind, and on that we'd like to make two points:

All our records go to show that this is the most economical Buick ever built. It is easy on gas, on oil, on tires, on upkeep.

And if you choose it with Dynaflo

Drive,* it immediately eliminates all chance of friction-clutch repair and replacement—not to mention greatly reducing rear-axle and transmission maintenance.

Best of all, your initial outlay is a highly favorable one—whatever Buick you buy. For these brawny straight-eights—built rugged and solid for durable service—are priced at a level that makes them a standout buy in any price class.

Yes, better buy a Buick. Your dealer will be glad to demonstrate, glad to work out all the arithmetic of a deal. See him right away and get an order signed.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

The American Way

In Michigan the game of golf is gaining in popularity every year. It's a healthful, companionable game. And it's "The American Way," after reaching the 19th Hole to relax and enjoy a cool, sparkling glass of Michigan brewed beer. For beer is the kind of beverage Americans like. It belongs... to pleasant living, to good fellowship, to sensible moderation. And our right to enjoy it, this too, belongs... to our own American heritage of personal freedom. Beer Belongs...
