ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

We've noticed that though mod-ern youth is filled with scorn of styles long past, he gladly ac-cepts Mom's old-fashloned cook-

"The simplest way to irk the son at college," says a father who should know, "is to send him a letter with nothing in it but love and now at home."

A very smart doctor we know, (he drives the comfortable, eco-nomical Studebaker, told us the strangest case he ever had, was time he was called upon to

Since the President made his talk the other p.m., we've been busy with peoul and paper, here long deliberation, we've lone to the conclusion that, due to the very low price of the handsome mes Studebaker, one-third down and twenty-one months to pay won't be so very tough at that. Come on in, you'll be surprised at how easily you can own and pay for your new car.

The lad in the shop that does such an excellent job of lubrication and caring for your car, tells us that he is of the opinion that the only isolationists left in this world are those folks who get

Well that's that for this week
