

LUTHERAN MEN'S CLUB TO HOLD DINNER-MEETING

The Men's Club of Grace Lutheran Church, Grand River at Imperial Highway, will hold their next meeting Thursday, February 7.

A supper prepared by members will be served from 6 p.m. until 7 p.m. Vernon Hawley is chairman and will be assisted by Kai Tuomari, Elmer Hoffman, Al MacArthur, Bill Sewell and Henry Woodward.

The business meeting will follow the supper and a technical film will be shown by Norman Jones.

The Junior Young People's Society will meet January 31 in the church basement. Final arrangements for a square dance will be made. The 20th meetings at various cities and the winter rally will be discussed.

Refreshments will be served with Mary Bird, Marlene Osterle and Mildred Berman as hostesses.

Church Youths Combine For Service February 3

The Farmington Methodist Youth Fellowship will join with youth groups of other churches for an inter-denominational worship service at the Methodist Church Sunday, February 3, starting at 7 p.m.

Sponsors of the service are inviting all teenagers and their parents to attend. This service is one of the many being held throughout the United States in connection with "The Call to United Christian Youth."

At this service there will be a speaker from one of the Detroit Churches, whose topic will be "United Christian Youth Action."

Plan Dinner

The Methodist Mothers' Club is proceeding with plans for their second smorgasbord dinner which is being requested by request. The date is set for Wednesday, February 20, at 6:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church.

NORTHSIDE NEWS

By Mrs. Harley Dix
Phone Mayfair 6-3732

Here I am back again after a very unhappy holiday. Brian, our eight month old son, has been sick the past two weeks and in Henry Ford Hospital for five days. He is home now and feeling much better.

Bob Chapp, son of the W. Chappas on Greening, informed his family last week that he had been transferred from the Lockland Air Base, San Antonio, Texas, to Sheppard Field Air Base, Wichita Falls, Texas. Bob left for service the early part of January and reports that so far everything has been wonderful.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hardy and son Edgar of Ypsilanti and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dix of Middlebelt spent Saturday evening at the Harley Dix home on Greening.

Lee Jani Larch, daughter of the Roy Larches of Middlebelt, picked her two day school vacation to have her first cold of the year. She is feeling some better now.

Mrs. W. Chapp of Greening and Mrs. William Dorosh of Detroit took a five day motor trip to Stanford, Kentucky, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Leo Chapp. The weather was good and they enjoyed the trip very much. They stopped and explored some antique shops on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Obeginski and sons David and Danny of Middlebelt road were in Youngstown, Ohio, Wednesday through Sunday of last week visiting an uncle and aunt.

Mrs. Chet Rayner of Northwest was ill for several days last week but is feeling some better.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson of Greening had a group of friends at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Don Huff and son Gregory of Sunnydale, Mr. and Mrs. George MacArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnston of Springbrook Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Geisler of Orchard Lake Road and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnston of Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cusick of Middlebelt Road announce the arrival of a nine pound, four ounce baby boy January 3. They have named their new son Paul Jon. He is reported to be doing very nicely.

Mrs. Carl Duquet and Mrs. W. Chapp of Greening were at the Cass Theatre recently to see the play "The Rose Tattoo".

Five year old Earl Tinsman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tinsman of Middlebelt Road, has been ill the past week.

Farmington Woman's Club To Meet

The Farmington Woman's Club will meet Wednesday, February 6, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dolis Portis, 2325 Farmington Road. Mrs. Portis will show an exhibit of the work that is done in her ceramics studio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Rigby and Mrs. Hazel Holmes of Brent Drive spent a pleasant time at the home of the Wilcoxes on Anglin Road recently.

The Anders children are back in school after a month's illness. Extra! Extra! Neighbors living around Clarenceville High School may have been disturbed by noise coming from the Clarenceville gym. It isn't caused by the students, but is coming from adults rehearsing an all-star cast play called "The Womanless Wedding" to be presented by the PTA February 23.

Recently the store paid a call to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vador on Long Avenue and brought a five pound girl.

Don't forget to turn on your porch light Thursday, January 31, for the Mothers March of Dimes collection between the hours of 6:30 and 7:30 p.m.

It is at all possible, be at home and give them a hearty financial welcome. It is for a very good cause and should be supported by the whole community.

The Cristwood Circle held a baby shower for Evan Kohn at the home of Edith Norick on Hugh Street. Among the guests present were Millie Griffin, Thelma Wagner, Adele Meadows, Helen Pace and Pat Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hartom of St. Martins and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Whitlock of Purlingbrook had a very enjoyable time at a card party given by the Grange in Plymouth.

Nola Frances Hoard from Kentucky is a guest of the Overfields. At a very beautiful candlelight wedding ceremony held at the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Mr. Ralph Lewis, formerly of Rhoswood Avenue, was united in marriage to Doris Gertrude Sparks of Detroit. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at which over three hundred friends and relatives were present.

The Clarenceville Mothers Club held its meeting Wednesday, January 24, at the home of Mrs. Wade on Rensselaer. Marie Whitlock was co-hostess.

The Edgewood 200 Rebekahs attended the Ladies Day program on television Friday, January 25. Awards were won by some of the members.
