Dear Editor:

To all the people of Farmington: This week has been declared by the President of the United States as "Brotherhood Week." Let all of us in Farmington observe what is truly American. Let us all follow the lines spoken by our great President Lincoln, "That all men are created equal." Let's not forget that neither race, creed, nor color should prejudice our lives. Let us remember what our men in the service are fighting and have fought for.

Sincerely,
Charles E. Larson
