HONOR ASSEMBLY TO BE PRESENTED THURSDAY, MARCH 6

The National Honor Society assembly will be held this morning at 10:00 a.m.

According to the rules of the society, only 15 per cent of the Senior Class is eligible for membership. Eleven seniors have been selected but names are withheld until the assembly.

Students were selected on the basis of scholarship, character and leadership, among other qualities. Miss Ruth Bailey was faculty chairman in charge of the committee making the selections. Although plans are not complete, a faculty tea to honor the new society members will probably be held later this spring.

Valedictorian and salutatorian will also be announced at the assembly. A. A.

LET'S USE OUR MONEY

Annually we spend large sums of money on athletics for equipment. And we are proud of our teams when they take the field as well-equipped as their opponents. But why must we graduate students who have not had the best equipment made available to them, such as a fine and well-stocked library?

Each year only about 30% of the boys and 25% of the girls participate in athletics, but all students use the library facilities at some time. Then why do we not spend more money on the cultural end of our education?

The usual answer to this is that there is no room and no money. We can not remedy the former condition at the moment but we can remedy the latter.

Since each individual student of each class uses the library, why could we not take, let us say, 5% of the net profits of each school affiliated organization's net profit a year for books? Or, perhaps the student council could set aside some money for books.

Regardless of what we do, something must be done if we are to allow each student to get the most benefit from his or her schooling. C. T.

Assembly Reveals Interlakes Talent

The Inter-Lakes talent assembly was held at Farmington High Wednesday, February 26. Students from Walled Lake, Southfield, Berkley, Waterford, Keego Harbor and Farmington participated in the program.

Walled Lake's 12-piece dance band directed by Holland Maritz opened with "Moonlight Serenade." Their next selection was "Rain." The band then played its theme song "Solitude," the second chorus of which was sung by Beverly Hubbard.

Diane Zarek from Southfield played a piano solo, "Ritual Fire Dance." Betty Ann Breiling sang "Turn Back the Hands of Time." A three-piece band composed of a piano, clarinet and drums played "Twelfth Street Rag" and "The Mexican Hat Dance." The three boys, Angelo Beucwenger, Norm Farmer and Don Meyer, are from Berkley.

The "Uncalled Four", a barbershop quartet from Waterford, sang "Strolling Thru The Park One Day", "Shine" and "Coney Island Baby." When the Farmington High student body recalled the boys, they sang a short ditty about a monkey. Jerry Ball was the bass, Jerry Hargrave a baritone, Sam Lanpher was lead and Harold Bomgardner the tenor.

"Hello Young Lovers" and "And So To Sleep Again" were the solos of Violet McClellins from Keego Harbor. Also from Keego was a costume act by Jane McFarland. She acted to the records "Temptation" and "Hurrah! Hurrah! I'm Going Away With The Man in the Little White Coat."

Ruth Jones from Farmington played a piano solo, Liszt's "Un Sospiro." Ruth received a "superior" rating at the district Solo and Ensemble Festival in Ypsilanti on February 15.

Ann Redner, also from Farmington, sang the Latin hymn "Ave Maria" to close the program. J. F.
