Gordie Howe Picks 'Best'

In the 20 years he skated up and down the hock-ey arenas of America, Gordie Howe, rated the greatest Red Wing of all time, played with, and against, hundreds and hundreds of National Hockey

Who were the best? Who deserved all-time rating?

Gordie broke his long silence on selecting all-star teams this week when he named the following players as the best "I have seen."

Goalie – Terry Sawchuck, Red Wings
Defense – Bobby Orr, Boston Bruins
Defense – Doug Harvey. Montreal
Center – Mill Schmidt, Boston Bruins Right Wing – Maurice Richard, Montreal Cana-

"It's too backthat I have to leave out fellows like Ted Lindsay and Sid Abel, of the Red Wings. But, while they were good, I still think Milt Schmidt, of the Bruins, was the best center, and there's no denying that Richard and Bobby Hull were the best.
