HOWDY NEIGHBOR!

What's cookin'? Could it be a hen chicken stewin' away on the front burner? Yep, it could be if you'd stop around here this week end cause we're gonna have some fresh dressed stewers for 49c a lb. and woulda stewed chicken and dumplin's make a good Sunday dinner? Then yuh could have some of them new red potatoes what are 6 lbs. for 49c. Yuh know we bin havin' them around our house and they taste so good it aint good — we eat too many and you know what they do to the figger — especially when yuh put parsley butter on 'em — and now we can do that cause Vlastic butter is jest 79c a lb. We've been havin' some carrots here that are really pictures and if yer likin' 'em yuh can git 3 bunches for 29c. If you've ever asked Marty what vegetables to have yuh know she always sez buttered carrots so maybe 3 bunches aint too many. Somethin' else too — if yuh like to boil yer chicken a while anen fry it you'll be needin a 3 lb. can of Crisco and it's only 79c a can. Course if you got one of them coupon things it'll only cost yuh 69c. That's good — aint it?

Are yuh havin' bacon and eggs and juice fer breakfast? Could it be tomatoe juice when a big can is only 25c? Of course if yuh like real bacon that's smoked with hickory smoke we know you'll buy Conroy's bacon fer 55c a lb. Or maybe yer a pancake and sausage eater and like yer sausage with meat in it. Have you tried our sausage lately? Now's a good chance cause it's 33c a lb. If yer havin' a rib end pork loin roast fer 39c a lb. seems like you'll need applesauce too. We've got it canned 2 fer 29c or yuh can make yer own with some Spy apples that are 3 lbs. for 25c. Yuh probably aint much interested in the shank end of a smoked ham fer 49c cause you'll be wantin' ham fer Easter so maybe yuh should have a pot roast of beef this week end fer 69c a lb. — anen yuh could sling the potatoes and carrots around that in yer roaster and not have many calico dishes to wash. That's fer me. If yuh got a big enuf roast yuh could have some sliced cold and we got the best relish to put on cold meats or hamburgers. To gitcha to try it we're gonna sell 2 jars fer 49c this week end. Seems like yuh should find somethin' good to eat in here — cancha???

Farmington Girl Scout News

Novi Brownie Troop 3 had a regular meeting Tuesday, March 11, at the Novi School. The girls were presented with shamrocks to wear on St. Patrick's Day by committee chairman Mrs. Alma Klammer. Plans were made for the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund to be given next week. The Brownies talked about international friendship and Brownies in other countries by using a Brownie doll set, consisting of a cut-out of the girl and a Brownie uniform representing different countries of the world. The doll set was brought in by Lana Whistie. A world pin was given to each girl. A new game was played called "Shoo-Fl" and the girls learned a new Brownie tunnel closing with a song entitled "Good-night Brownies". Treats were donated by Carolyn Edelman and Kathy Dawson.

Brownie Troop 130 and their leaders, Mrs. Forest Durham and Mrs. Norman Cook had a special treat Wednesday, March 12, at their meeting. Mrs. John Trombley made a very elaborate Brownie Girl Scout Birthday cake and presented it to the troop. It was a rectangular-shaped two-layer cake of green and white butter and icing in green. Forty white candles in tiny green flower holders, red roses, "Happy 40th Birthday" and a sketch of the Brownie pin decorated the top of the cake. Mrs. T. Mantalla furnished Kool-Aid. The women were rewarded for their thoughtfulness by the happy faces of the little Brownies presented in the glow of the 40 candles as they enjoyed their party.

The Farmington Girl Scouts' 40th birthday celebration in the high school gym Saturday, March 15, was a colossal success. Over a thousand people thronged about the midways, sat in the balcony and participated in the program of the evening. Twenty-two Brownies dressed in colorful and highly imaginative costumes made the circus a tremendous hit with their calisthenic feats, ballet and tap dancing, singing, piano solos, roller skating and bicycle performances. The circus was made very realistic when the girls were presented with popcorn presented by Mr. Edward Hoher, manager of the Civic Theater. The girls are grateful, too, for the balloons made possible by the generosity of Mr. "Mac" of Mac's to $5.00 Store.

Springbrook Scenes
By MRS. HOWARD LEGG

We are glad to hear that Mr. Orville Myant is rapidly recovering from a serious brain operation and will be able to return to his home on Hawthorne Avenue from the hospital soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Hicks and Vicky and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCullough spent Sunday evening visiting Rev. and Mrs. Roy Johnson on Pulaski. All of the Johnsons have had this bad flu that is going around again.

This was a week for celebration at our house when Friday evening all the neighbors called with a pot-luck lunch in celebration of our fifth wedding anniversary. Sunday we were honored by the company of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCullough for planning the party on Friday and for the lovely Italian dinner. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Fred Bettidge for planning the party Friday and for the lovely dinner set she gave me. We are fortunate to live in a neighborhood where there are such lovely neighbors.

It has been nice meeting so many more of you personally through the Red Cross canvassing and we are equally pleased with the results. There is still a lot to be done so if you have a few minutes and would like to help, don't fail to call me.

Little Helen Kendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kendrick of Springbrook Drive, is missing school these days because of the chicken pox.

We hear there are a lot of children at home in our community because of different illnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harrison, Jr., of Edmonston, are the parents of a baby daughter, Kathleen Virginia, who weighed six pounds and one ounce when she arrived recently. The Harrisons also have two sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williamson of Farmington Road are the parents of a new son who weighed seven pounds six ounces when he arrived in the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital Thursday, March 12. Douglas Eugene has two other little brothers at home.

Women To Make Exhibits For Detroit Flower Show

More women from Farmington have been invited to make exhibits for the Detroit Flower Show March 29 to April 6 than in any other section of metropolitan Detroit, a Flower Show spokesman reported this week.

Mrs. Glenn Leland and Mrs. John Grant will do a table decoration together, the spokesman continued, and Mrs. Grant will do a dried plant arrangement also. Another Farmington woman doing a dried plant arrangement is Mrs. Walter Cron.

Doing a drift-wood arrangement from Farmington will be Mrs. Keith Woughtry, Mrs. Tracy Conroy, Mrs. Philip Henualt and Mrs. Richard Lancaster.

The spokesman stated that changing from last year's procedure, there will be no competition in arrangements and only women considered experts in arrangement were invited to make exhibits this year.

TWO INJURED IN GRAND RIVER AUTO ACCIDENT

Two persons suffered minor injuries in a three-car collision on Grand River at Violet Street last Friday afternoon, city police reported.

Thomas Lockwood, six years old, 13605 Turner Street, Detroit, suffered a bump on the head as a result of the accident. Barbara Joan Lockwood, also of 13605 Turner Street, suffered minor neck injuries. Neither was hospitalized.

The accident occurred when cars driven by Edmund Streling, 32500 Eleven Mile Road, Farmington, and Orville Lockwood, 13605 Turner, Detroit, stopped for a school bus on Grand River. A third car driven by David Seeley, 19371 Garfield, Detroit, and headed in the same direction, started to pass the other cars, when two boys pushing bicycles started crossing the street. According to police, he swerved to the right, striking the Lockwood car in the rear.

Seeley, who was driving in the second lane on his side of the street, started to believe that he did not see the school bus and did not notice that the cars had stopped.
