AUTOMATIC LIGHT DIMMER OFFERED ON OLDS CARS
The development of an amazing automatic headlight beam control for motor vehicles known as the Guide "Automatic-Eye", which will increase greatly the safety of night driving, was announced by C. A. Michel, general manager of the Guide Lamp Division, General Motors Corporation, Anderson, Indiana.
"For many years the public has been conscious of the need for improvement of glare relief in driving on our highways at night," Mr. Michel said, "and we sincerely believe this new development is one of the biggest contributions toward safety and comfort of night driving that has ever been offered to the motoring public."
The "Automatic-Eye" mounted behind the windshield sees what the driver sees and acts instantly and automatically. When it sees a bright light approaching it dims your headlights and returns them to the bright beam as the car or cars pass. When driving on brightly lighted city streets, the lights are automatically held on the lower beam. The "Automatic-Eye" relieves the driver of the responsibility of using the foot dimming switch when meeting other vehicles.
The "Automatic-Eye" is being made available immediately as a factory installation on 1952 Oldsmobile cars.

Technologist Gerds in Charge Of Grace Hospital Blood Bank
Miss Joyce Gerds, who graduated from Farmington High School in 1945, and whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gerds, now live at 28821 Haledale Road, is enthusiastic about her career as a Medical Technologist. She was a great deal of personal satisfaction in knowing that she is able, by providing the blood which is used in transfusions, to help many people in their health. Her transfusions have taken much of the risk out of major surgery, and surgeons are now able to undertake many operations which would have been considered impossible a few years ago. The tests used to determine whether or not the blood of a donor is compatible with the blood of a recipient are fascinating and interesting. It was because of an interest in science and medicine that Joyce first looked into the field of Medical Technologist. Finding that it entailed such a variety of work and afforded opportunities for specialization later, she decided to enroll in the course at Michigan State College. At the end of four years, three of which were spent at the college and the fourth in the laboratory at Grace Hospital, she received her degree of Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology, and was eligible to take the examinations for national registration. Following her registration, she accepted a position as medical technologist at the high school laboratories and is now in charge of the Blood Bank there. Joyce advises anyone interested in Medical Technology to attend the Laboratory course at Michigan State College, 3035, 1952. In this area the following hospitals are participating: Wayne County General, Mt. Carmel Mercy, Providence, Detroit Memorial, Stratford, Grace Hospital, Grand River, St. Joseph's (Grosse Pointe), and St. Joseph's (Pontiac).
For further information call Mrs. L. M. Hotchels, Farmington 2875, after 6:00 p.m.

Springbrook Scenes
By MRS. HOWARD LEGG
This Saturday, March 29, is the Red Cross bake sale so don't plan on baking for the week end as we plan on having many delicious goodies at Zehnder's Market. We are looking forward to a large turn-out from our Springbrook friends.
Mrs. Margaret Gassner entertained the luncheon club Thursday evening at her home on Springbrook Drive. Mrs. Marion Gilmore was awarded a very nice luncheon cloth for first award.
The birthday club held its monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Alice Gress on Shilwaukee. Mrs. Shirley Logan, Mrs. Maxine Lynd, Mrs. Lillian Deaven, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mrs. Verna Taylor, Mrs. Helen Whitehouse, Mrs. Gladys Oger, Mrs. Barbara Sajo, Mrs. Geraldine Deaven and Mrs. Margaret Zehner were present to help her celebrate.
Mrs. Inez Smith and Mrs. Betty Kahl were hostesses Thursday evening at a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Adeline Smith of Tuck Road, which was attended by sixteen of her friends.
Mr. John Brandvold of Westmoreland is in the Detroit Memorial Hospital recuperating from a large operation. It is hoped he will recover speedily so he may return to his home.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cloutier and daughter Donna are visiting in London, Ontario.
Miss Judy DeLong is home on vacation from Michigan State College and is spending it with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold DeLong of Harcourt.
Mrs. Harry Rudy and Mrs. John Brandvold are holding a pink and blue shower tonight in honor of Mrs. Gilbert Treweek Jr.
Miss Elizabeth Jean Bedding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bedding of Detroit, became the bride of Walter Allen Sorensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sorensen of Oxford, Saturday, March 22. The young couple was honored at a reception in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman P. Sitterlin in Detroit following the ceremony.
Little Beverly Ann Aland has returned to her home from the hospital in Pontiac where she was taken with pneumonia.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Taylor and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aland Jr., Saturday evening.
Mr. John Gassner was confined to his bed last week end with flu.
Helen Kendrick has recovered from the chicken pox and returned to school.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mahoney and children were invited to spend up to their knees Sunday evening to have dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Legg on Springbrook Drive.
The natural fertility of the soil, where it was rich or poor in the beginning, is an important factor in determining the need for fertilizers.
Deer have no upper front teeth.
