WE WON'T RUN EITHER ---

We're gonna stick around here — we kinda like hangin' over the counter chippin' our teeth with all the friendly folks what come in here — and if yuh got a long story to tell us we'll pull up a couple old boxes and sit right down and visit with yuh. Now you'd better sit down cause we got a few things to tell you about. We straightened our stock room around and we wantcha to know we have a lot of locker containers and if paper products stay the way they are now you'd better git some on hand. Yuh know what else we got — 12 enameled dish pans! We try each year to sell 'em and nobody wants 'em — so next year we'll probably have 12 dish pans on hand. Us lucky people! Yuh don't need one fer 79c, do yuh? We have more paper products too — there's 2 boxes of 300 count Kleenex fer 49c and a roll of Cut-Rite wax paper fer 24c. Fer eatin' we got some Farmington grown navy or northern beans whatcha can git 2 lbs. of fer 25c. If yer gonna bake 'em there's Heinz catsup fer 25c a bottle and salt pork fer 29c a lb. — and what's baked beans without a lb. of hot dogs fer 49c? Course yuh gotta have coffee and why not try our whole bean coffee when it's jest 69c a lb.?

We thought maybe you'd like to take a whirl at our bacon and see just how good bacon can taste so we're gonna letcha have it this week end fer 59c a lb. Then they tell me that everybody looks fer coffee and butter prices — do yuh? We got the coffee already and we'll sell Vlasic butter fer 74c a lb. this week end. The guys are gettin' caught up on their locker processing now so they ground up some lean veal and pork and made some "city chicken legs". They're real good too — we tried 'em! All yuh gotta do is fry 'em and they're jest 89c a lb. They've been made corned beef too and it's jest 69c a lb. We always kinda feel like we gotta have a roast fer Sunday dinner so we got something left fer nibblin' and this week it's gonna be a beef roast fer 69c a lb. You gonna have one too???
