I'm sure that everyone is interested and have wondered how the Red Cross Bake Sale turned out on Saturday and I'm very proud to tell you it was a grand success. Doesn't it make you happy that we actually did something to aid such a grand cause instead of sitting back and letting someone else do the work? My

Meadowbrook Murmurs

By Mrs. Dean Eckert

These first breaths of Spring are too wonderful to chatter about, but there's one thing about the good of winter time. It's a fine growing season for hobbies, and some interesting new ones we're hearing about. One of 'em is the jewelry making of Miss Mary Ellen Buff of 2501 Scott Street. Since she's handicapped, "Auntie Bill" found the snow-drifts a double reason for staying in, and the lovely pin and earrings she's carving out show real respect for her talents. Her wish now is for customers, so she can expand the hobby into an enterprise. So, if you're in the market for a gift or a pretty pin for your Easter lapel, why not "help your neighbor"? You can phone her about these gems at Farmington 2626-W.

Scout News

Brownie Troop 150 and their leaders, Mrs. Forrest Durham and Mrs. Norman Cook, were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Grant on Oakland Wednesday, March 26, for a waffle and marshmallow roast at the fireplace. After playing a few games the Scouts thanked their host and hostess for a most enjoyable afternoon.

Court of Awards was held by Intermediate Troop 178 at the Farmington Methodist Church on Monday, March 25, at 8 p.m. The Scouts bid farewell to leader Mrs. Ted Gillespie, who is moving out of the district. They welcomed Mrs. Donald Allen, former co-leader, as their new leader and Mrs. Donald Swift as co-leader. Honored guests at the meeting were Mrs. Harry Farmer, chairman of Farmington Girl Scouts, Mrs. James Lillie, vice-chairman, Mrs. J. P. Boyce, organization chairman for Southern Oakland County and Mrs. Stephen Droegge, the former Brownie leader. The mothers' committee served cake, chocolate milk and coffee.

A birthday party for four Scouts in Troop 151, at the home of Mrs. J. P. Boyce, celebrated this week in the form of a hike from the Farmington High School to Woodcreek between Twelve and Thirteen Mile Roads off Northwestern to Scout Judy Weightman's home. There the girls will participate in a cook-out.

Recently Troop 11 Troop 181 visited the Singer Sewing Machine Store in Birmingham.

A. A. U. HEARS SOCIAL STUDIES LECTURER SPEAK

Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women met at the home of Mrs. William Aulepp last Thursday. Miss Dorothy Schroeder, a member of the local branch and a lecturer in the Graduate School of Social Studies at the University of Michigan, spoke on Social Service work. She was a Supervisor of Social Work in Cleveland previous to her teaching position. She gave a most interesting talk on the educational preparation for Social Service work and what the field has to offer.

Mrs. George Nahstoll, Jr., was elected vice-president and membership chairman, and Mrs. Craig Porter was elected treasurer, both for two year terms.

Because of the Regional and State Convention at Grand Rapids April 25 - 28, the April meeting has been postponed until May 1. It will be held at the home of Mrs. George Nahstoll, Jr., at 20105 W. Ten Mile Road.

GARDEN CLUB TO HEAR TALK ON ARRANGEMENT

Mrs. Albert Allmayer will speak to members of the Farmington Garden Club Monday, April 7, at the Baptist Church Community Hall. Her topic will be "A Lesson in Judging Arrangements," illustrated with colored slides. Mrs. Allmayer is instructor of flower arrangement classes for the Detroit Board of Education evening classes.

Desert will be served promptly at 1 p.m. followed by the business meeting at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Byron Campbell will serve as chairman of the business and will be assisted by Mrs. Stanley Bright, Mrs. Harry Brundel, Mrs. Paul S. Caulkins, Mrs. Clyde W. Chamberlain and Mrs. William Thornton.
