MAMERICAN PRISONERS

While the public anxiously watches U.N. true negotiations to free American prisoners in Korea, many Ex-Gil's who were prisoners during the last war wonder it congress will ever get around to settling claims arising out of their imprisonment.

The Genera convention provided that a nation which captures enemy prisoners in warting must may these men for labor performed as prisoners. Accordingly, latter World War II, we concluded agreements with the German, Italian and Japanese government, lunder which congress appropriated a total of $169,000,000 to pay emprisoners for work done for us. Harvester believed to rung con-tal of $159,000,000 to pay enemy prisoners for work done for us. However, believe it or not, congress is now considering turning this alien property back to German, Hailan and Japinese antionals, rather than paying American Po.W.s. 14 bills now before the house interestate and foreign commerce committee—saveral of them already passed by the seante—which would return the property to certain classes of former enemy nationals. WORRIED McGRATH—Old senate friends who have dropped in on Autorney General Howard McGrath recently are shocked at the change in him. Usually gental and self-confident, McGrath now complains to "islore," The being hounded. Dad, I'm real serious about this - the doctor says I can't keep clean, healthy and strong without lots of Hot Water

Is there any excuse for not having a clean body — clean clothes—clean home—when unlimited quantities of hot water can be had so cheaply? Actually, Dad — it is almost a necessity because you just can't keep "kiddies" in per-fect health without plenty of hot water.

Why not install one of these long-lasting, attractive-eco-nomical heaters today? The first cost is low — and terms are easily arranged.
