THE BLUE AND WHITE

A Review:
Senior Band Portion Of Annual Spring Concert Played In Grand Style

The Farmington High Senior Band put on a good concert last Friday evening.

The program of the Senior Band was begun with a march, "The Zepherin." The tempo was fast and stirring, and the playing was good. Then the band played a waltz "Over the Alps." Next played was a sacred number, "A Prayer to the Virgin." These two were played well.

The next piece "On The Trail" was from the "Grand Canyon Suite." It imparted a feeling of being on a horse out on the prairie. In the last number by Jean Sibelius "Finlandia," the Band showed what happened when a first chair player was not there. Dennis Cannert, first chair clarinet player, was ill. The clarinet section missed Dennis for this number. It is the clarinets which carry most of the melody. But the clarinet section did a passing job. One thing lacking at the concert was a novelty number. The program did not seem complete without one.

ROLLCALL SALES CLOSE APRIL 21; FAR SHORT OF GOAL

The Yearbook Business staff, before the beginning of sales, set its goal at 500 copies. As of April 10 they had sold 200 Rollcalls, 200 short of the quota.

According to make-up editor Jane Hamlin, the 1952 edition will be one of the best yearbooks ever published at Farmington High. Jane said, "The '52 Rollcall contains more pages and pictures than any previous edition."

The Rollcall this year sells at a comparatively low price. Some other schools in this district sell their yearbooks for nearly twice as much.

Fred Raupp, business manager, has set the sales deadline at April 21. He said, "There will be positively no extension of this deadline; any students who wish to buy Rollcalls must get them by then." He added, "I cannot see why more students have not already obtained their yearbooks. They are of immeasurable value to every student since they contain records of organizations, athletics, and other things of interest to any person who has been connected with the school."

Anyone who wishes to buy a '52 Rollcall should see A. Aho, B. Brown, P. Calkins, C. Dryden, A. Louys, E. McCracken, F. Raupp, N. Raupp or D. Stephen.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In the past years the Student Council has been held in high esteem by the students of Farmington High, but this year the Student Council, by its own hand, has changed that feeling to utter disrespect.

This lackadaisical, slow working group has added practically nothing but confusion to the high school scene.

Recently the problem of appointing a new vice-president came to light. Since the greatest job of the vice-president is the administration of the Student Court, it only seems logical that a person with more than a layman's knowledge of the court would get the job.

But was this so... absolutely not!

A person who had knowledge of the court was taken out of the position so that a person who knew practically nothing of it could be appointed.

"What fools these mortals be," Student.

Sincerely Yours:

Letters submitted to the Editor for publication must be signed. The names of those of the writer and do not necessarily represent the policies of this newspaper.

Dear Sir:

I am writing you in regards to a thing that I had often been said comes to a man once in a lifetime.

Last Friday night I was fortunate enough to attend a band festival at the gym of the Farmington High School. Like some parents I have always taken the education of children as a matter of course. I realize that in this time of unrest and chaos our children were receiving so much more than the three R's. The opening rendition, "The Star-Spangled Banner," played by the Farmington Senior Band, with the precision of John Philip Sousa, gave me the feeling that freedom for America would be with us always. I also, had a memorable moment to the intermediate and junior bands, ready to take the seniors' places upon their graduation, and to the little tots ready to step up in due time.

Mr. Lloyd Smith, the instructor, I do not know, but I am sure he is to be congratulated. Thank God that we have a teacher who can instill in our children this spirit of America.
