USED FINGER-NAIL DYES
According to research experts, the Moors used henna finger-nail dye at the height of their culture (about 950 A.D.). This ancient version of modern red nail polish was flat along with camel's liver and slat across cakes by merchants squatting on straw mats in the market place.

Pleasure And Leisure Shop To Move To New Store

The Pleasure and Leisure Shop will soon move to their new store at the corner of Grand River and Northrup in Redford, officials of the company announced this week. The Shop has served the Redford — Farmington area for a number of years. Officials stated that in addition to their line of appliances and television, they are adding a complete line of furniture. This will include such famous makes as Drexel, Sonoma, Simmons, Menga and Hungerford. The same time customer service that has made thousands of friends for them will be extended to the furniture department. Mr. Hebb-

Little League Baseball Film To Be Shown May 13

An official color film on the Little League Baseball organization will be shown Tuesday, May 13, at 7:30 p.m. at the Farmington High School gym.

All boys from eight to twelve years of age, as well as their parents, are invited to see the film, which is being forwarded to Farmington from the National Little League headquarters. The film will include highlights from exciting Little World Series games.

Officials stated that the film will be available soon for registration. Boys participating in the program must have the written consent of their parents before they can play.
