

SPRINGBROOK SCENES

Mrs. Howard Legg
PHONE FARMINGTON 3011-W

In the spring everyone's fancy turns to traveling, or so it seems for the members of our Springbrook family.

Mrs. Charles Taylor and her daughter Mary Ann left last Thursday for San Fernando, California, where they will stay with Mr. Nick Christie and his three sons until June. The Christie family formerly lived on Eleven Mile Road.

Miss Taylor's class at the Farmington High School honored her with a farewell party last Monday after school.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guenther and their family spent the week end visiting relatives in Indiana. Little Gail Guenther has been suffering from a severe ear infection and has been under the doctor's care since her return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burns and family are in Alpena, Michigan, with Mr. Peter Cherry, who is visiting his brother, home on furlough. His brother expects to be shipped overseas on his return to camp. The Burns and Mr.

Cherry are expected back home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnston and son of Springbrook Drive drove to Davidson, Michigan, Sunday for a short visit with Mr. Johnston's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Harmon took a longer trip through the country and did some visiting in Bedford, Kentucky, over the Easter week end.

Mrs. Joyce Taylor received many beautiful gifts Monday evening when twenty of her friends met at the home of Mrs. Mary Taylor on Springbrook Drive to honor her with a pink and blue shower.

Little Wayne Johnston has been on the sick list the past few days but is recovering nicely now.

More good news is the fact that Mrs. Evelyn Kendrick returned to her home on Springbrook after undergoing a major operation. It will be some time before she can do much but it's good to be in her own home.

Our little Charlotte Ann has had quite a bad leg as a result of a small pox vaccination. It still hasn't kept her from running like a wild Indian, but it looks terrible.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hill and her son Gary are spending the week at the home of Mrs. Irene Whitehouse on Rockwell.

Mrs. Phyllis Taylor is making her temporary home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor.

PUT NAME ON BOATS

Public fishing site users this year must affix their names and addresses to the boat if he plans to anchor or leave the craft unattended overnight.

Abandonment of old boats at access sites prompted the new conservation department law.

SEVERAL STUDENTS TO ATTEND U. OF M. ON UNIVERSITY DAY

The annual University Day on the campus of the University of Michigan will take place Friday, May 2. Approximately 10 students from Farmington High are planning to attend.

The visitors are scheduled to arrive on the campus at 9:15 a.m. They will then attend an assembly where full details of the day's events will be given.

Immediately after the assembly, guided tours, which will include visits to the Michigan Union, The Student's League, the housing facilities and the educational buildings will take place.

After lunch the students will be free to do as they choose. They may keep their guide, if they so wish.

Movies, including a recent football game, and a marching band performance will be shown at 3:00 p.m. Students may attend if they so desire.

Waterford Takes Falcons 70 To 49 1/2 For First Loss

Farmington suffered their first track defeat of the year 70 to 49 1/2 at the hands of the Waterford Wildcats April 24.

The medley team of G. Shaw, B. Jones, J. Hill and E. Klees finished first.

Farmington took a first in the mile as B. Mansfield did his expected fine job. J. Bryant led the half-milers at the wire. Farmington's B. Presley got a first in the high jump and A. MacFarlane, B. Hammond and D. Whitehead all tied for second.

The brightest part of the defeat was A. Corbit's record pole vault.

Next meet is the Central Michigan relays at Mt. Pleasant May 2.

"Prelude to Paradise" Held Saturday, April 26

The Senior Prom, "Prelude to Paradise", was held in the high school gym Saturday, April 26, from 9:00 to 12:00. Approximately 60 couples attended.

Decorations, under the direction of Carolyn Gardner and Miss Beck, consisted of stars and clouds making up the false ceiling, a mural of a golden starway behind the orchestra, a mural of pillars on the opposite wall, four pillars covered with colored leaves in front of the orchestra, and golden trees along the stands.

Tables were along three walls, in the west lobby, and on the stage. Refreshments, consisting of punch and cookies, were also served on the stage.

The music was provided by Bill Gail and his orchestra. A. A.

Legion Auxiliary Names Essay Contest Winners

Freshman Roger Fendt and Eighth Grader Bruce Richards were named winners of the senior and junior division, respectively, of the essay contest sponsored by the American Legion.

The essays were on the subject "Know Your Michigan". The winning essays have been sent to the 17th District Contest.

Other winners were: Lauren Clifford, second place; Dorothy Cant, third place in the senior contest; and Karen Senob, second and Delene Domes third in the junior contest.

Retailing, Office Classes Visit Penny's Dept. Store

The retailing class and the office practice girls went on a trip to Penny's Department Store on Tuesday, April 22.

The group visited the tube room where money is sent to different parts of the store, observed the office procedure, and watched the flow of merchandise throughout the store.

The group was accompanied by Mr. Spink, Farmington High commercial teacher.
