Six Students Visit Clarkston

Thursday morning, May 16, six Clarenceville Student Council representatives visited Clarkston to begin a Student Exchange program in the Wayne - Oakland League. The representatives are: Russ Robitaille, senior; Chuck Edmonds, junior; Pat Storti, sophomore; Ruth Robertson, junior and Al Cook, senior.

Upon their arrival at Clarkston, the principal met them and they were assigned students in their own grades to show them around the school.

The exchange students arrived at Clarkston during the second hour and went to classes with their assigned guides all morning.

After their classes, they had their own lunch and were furnished with ice cream, milk and potato chips.

They were a little late for fifth hour because they all went to the Clarkston for a cake, accompanied by three Clarkston girls.

They attended what was left of the fifth hour class and the sixth hour class but they had to leave at seven o'clock in order to get home in time for school to let out.

All in all, they had a very good time and can't wait until the Clarkston students come to Clarenceville so they can treat them as well as they were treated at Clarkston.

Senior Hi-Lite

A long time ago on a warm day in March, the year 1934, a little voice could be heard all over the hospital. This little voice belonged to Billy Joe Robbins.

It is 18 long years have elapsed since this bright day and little Billy Joe has grown to be a tall boy of 5' 11" now. He has brown curly hair and big, grey eyes.

Billy Joe has been going to Clarenceville since he was five years old. His favorite subject in school is football (I didn't know that was a subject) and of course his favorite teacher is Mr. McKittrick.

Besides going out on dates with Donna Jean, he likes to listen to "Always" and hear Guy Mitchell sing on the radio. Afterwards he likes to go down to the drug store and order a couple of milk shakes.

When Billy Joe graduates he wants to get a job, but thinks he might get a job for about five years with Uncle Sam.

Well, Billy Joe, wherever you are, if you longer you do, you will still have lots of friends at good old OHS besides the ones you will make along the roads of life.

ALUMNI NEWS

A shrill scream cuts through the silence. People come running from all directions. What happened? Winnie Smith got carried away by watching "Tales of the Hawk". It got so exciting! After everyone had drifted away I thought I could get a good seat for hi-Lite found out the following facts. She was born May 25, 1934, right here in Detroit, Michigan. She's one girl who did wander far from home. She is 5' 4", has blond hair and blue eyes. She enjoys school, especially economics, but doesn't have a favorite teacher.

She loves to dance to Patti Page's recording of "Whispering Willows". She also likes to hear Perry Como. The band she listens to most is Guy Lombardo. Her ambition is to work and travel, and I'm sure she'll do both. Her favorite season is summer so then she can see the boys running around the track. When I asked her who her favorite boy friend was, she replied "I love 'em all" quote and unquote. Take note of this, you unattached senior boys. At night she likes to walk down to the corner drug store with Jean, Marilyn and Sally.

Marion Hickey and Carl Westberg, Class of '47, will be married June 21. Plans are for a Florida honeymoon.

Chuck Broombaugh was discharged from the Marines Thursday, May 8, 1952.

Marilyn Russell is now Mrs. Joe Prisk. Both are graduates of our own C. H. S.

Jim Conway left last Friday, May 8, for Japan and Jim Russell left for Alaska Monday, May 12. Both finished radio training last month.

Some of the alumni of Clarenceville were seen at the Senior Frolics Saturday. Don Grover, Jane Ruttle, Andy Kennard, Bill Acton, Bob Godette, Harlow Davis and Jim McLelland were '51 graduates seen there. Don Ruttle, a '51 graduate, and Bonnie (Wellman) Fabst were also there.

High School Band Set For Memorial Day Parade

If you should happen to hear a loud beating of drums and a shrill noise of a trumpet when you are walking down the halls of Clarenceville, don't be surprised. It's only the high school band practicing for the Memorial Day parade.

At noon they are to leave Clarenceville to go to the parade. They have been practicing for the event.

First Order Of Varsity Club Jackets Arrive

The first order of Varsity Club jackets arrived Monday, May 12. The seniors were given their jackets first since they will be leaving the club soon. The rest of the members will receive their jackets on the next order.

The jackets are red with grey lettering on the back, they have a Trojan head in the center of the back with "Clarenceville Varsity Club" lettered around it.
