Meadowbrook Murmurs
By Mrs. Dean Eckert

Today's column ends our "Murmuring" folks, so excuse us while we dry away a sad tear. You get sort of attached to a neighborhood, and the people in it are like characters in a book as you help record the events of their lives. This month would end three years of Meadowbrook Murmurs, but this will be our last issue for we're up to our ears in boxes and suitcases, and work!

The Eckerts are moving. Yes, we're leaving our beloved "Happy Hill Acres" and many merry memories of our five-year stay in this neighborhood. With the store around overhead, we're really outgrowing our "H" brick hacienda. Our new house is at 15482 Doris, off Five Mile Road, in Livonia. (Phone Livonia 6788.) Drive and see us, we're gonna be lonesome.

Mrs. Richard Schulkins of 21119 Michigan (the "Farmington 1479-") will continue catching the news from this neighborhood and surrounding Clarenceville area. The former "Mercury" columnist is the long-time resident of the Farmington area. Give her lots of news-help, won't you? And watch for her "Clarenceville Clippings" next to writing often to their soldier son, Mrs. Feeney's hobby is working outdoors.

ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

Now along about Monday of a certain week, we're wondering how to best start the day and all we can think of is going fishing. As the weather is pretty wonderful and with our new Studebaker, it's easy to think of going anywhere. But what happens to buy a '52 Land Cruiser and right away, he isn't a guy any more but a gentleman of much discernment.

We sell him the car and in the meantime, he tells us of going to church with his five-year old son. When the service is over he asks the boy how he liked the service.

"The music and singing were pretty nice, Daddy," remarks the pride and joy, "but do you think the program will really make good with such a long commercial?"

"We wouldn't know, maybe the boy has a point, which is why we always try to keep our own ears because you forgot to expect when the best argument we have is the '52 Studebaker itself! Sleek, modern beauty! An amazingly powerful, responsive engine! Easy riding comfort! Surprisingly economical! There you have it and economy! You drive the car for yourself, you'll never truly experience the outstanding performance of a really fine automobile."

Fellow tells us he knows of a lug that found himself a girl friend who is also an amateur photographer, just because he likes to go along in the dark room to see what develops.

Did you ever stop to think how much future trouble may be developing in your car right now because you forgot to bring it in for a complete lubrication and motor tune-up. These mechanics of ours are very expert, but they can't heal your car by waving a wand while you drive by. Besides, they're nice guys and miss your company. Save yourself a lot of needless future expense by bringing them your car for a thorough check-up now! The cost is surprisingly low.

"That's that, but a farmer friend was telling me that the poultry on the farm have to catch the corn on the fly, come along the row, or eat it off the stalk."

Yours,
BOB KETTLER

Brownie Troop 150 made leath-berls on May 28, the last meeting until fall. Then the girls and their leader, Mrs. Forest Durham, and committee woman, Mrs. Ruth White, hiked to the Reiske home on Shingasse. They enjoyed hearing the Farmington High School band as they played while marching past the girls. After eating ice cream and animal crackers, they walked back to the Methodist Church.

Brownie Troop 158 and leaders Mrs. Hal Whiting and Mrs. David Spicer are entertaining their mothers at a luncheon Wednesday afternoon, June 11, at the home of Mrs. B. C. Banfield on Grand River.

Tween-Hi Troop 270 and leader Mrs. R. Ruderger had as their guests Tuesday, May 20, Mr. and Mrs. David Pressley of the Pressley Beauty Salon of Detroit. Mr. Pressley styled many of the girls' hair-dos and Mrs. Pressley gave detailed instructions on the care of the hair. The Scouts collected used clothing and shipped 450 pounds to the Navajo Indians in Utah. It cost the girls $41.04 to ship the clothing — money was made up by having bake sales and a substantial amount was donated by the troop committee.

Intermediate Troop 174 will hold a Court of Awards in the Middlebelt School Thursday evening, June 5, preceded by a pot-luck supper at 6:30 p.m. On May 26 the Scouts hiked to the Boy's Republic where Mr. Thornton, a teacher at the Republic, and Scout Master of Troop 109, showed the girls his wildlife collection in his nature room.

Boy's Troop 228 and leader Mrs. Wilson will have a Fly-Up ceremony Saturday, June 14, at 5 p.m. at the Farmington Recreation Park. Eleven Scouts from Troop 228 and one from Troop 174 will be promoted. This will be preceded by a family picnic supper.

Memorial Day was a memorable day for 12-year-old Lorraine Hawley of 21125 Middlebelt Road. Instead of marching in the big parade with the local Girl Scouts, Lorraine nursed an injured soldier, the accused while swinging the day before. The "Injury" proved otherwise before the day was over, however, with Lorraine's parents, the Yarn Hawleys, rushing her that night to St. Joseph Hospital for an emergency appendectomy. So, Lorraine's school days for this year have ended a bit earlier than expected.

The minute school is over, teacher Joe Markell will be hopping into his car and heading East. His wife and daughter, Susan, will soon be there, are in New Castle, Pennsylvania, "helping at the hardware store" while Mr. Markell's dad vacations in Italy. Mrs. Markell and Susan will come home last week to prepare for a second month there, during which time Joe Markell will join them.

With a worried look on his face, "Reddy" came back to the Carl Letlar home on Eldred Street last week. They think he must have read in this column how much they were missing him, and we're glad to know our little bit hero. The Letlar's daughter Dolores is a popular gal these days. She's enjoying a wonderful series of wedding showers, the latest being a personal shower in her honor at the Charles Diddams home on Sunnydale last week. Her maid-of-honor, Doris Diddams, was hostess and assisting her were bridesmaids, Jean Carow and Jane Rutlia. Miss Letlar will be married June 14 to Fred Grose, Jr., at the Clarenceville Methodist Church.

Monday evening marked the end of a busy year for the members of the Clarenceville Girl Scout Association. Meeting at the Middlebelt home of Mrs. Marjory Schulkins, the girls, wearing, exchanged white elephant "prizes" and said "So Long," 'til fall.

So ends our news-reporting for the week and probably for the next year as the whirl of motherhood gets whirlier. Just loved knowing you, and it's been fun hearing about folks in her corner of the township who have read our "what-ifs." Wish we could have met all of you, and we'll be scanning The Enterprise columns for your names and news. A neighbor hood news item is so trivial to some, but it's the little things in life that make it interesting and the many little people who make a real world. And showing an interest in one's neighbors is the first step toward being a good citizen. Don't you agree?

BAPTIST CHURCH PLANS YOUTH DINNER JUNE 13

The First Baptist Church of Farmington is planning a free dinner for young people who are interested in the Christian Life Camp held at Mill Lake in the beautiful Waterloo Recreation area, with which the church has cooperated in the last few years. The dinner will be held Friday, June 13, at 6:15 p.m. at the church. Program of the evening will feature a camp speaker, camp choruses and camp movies.

Working closely with the other churches, Grace Baptist of River Rouge, Lincoln Park Baptist and Hazel Park Baptist, the young people of the Farmington church have enjoyed a camp program which has been increasingly interesting and beneficial from the recreational, social and spiritual standpoints.

July 12 and 13 will be the annual Men's Retreat, the first of which was held last year. The devotional speaker will be the Reverend Kenneth Muck of the Ganson Street Baptist Church in Jackson, Michigan. The Farmington Baptist preacher, Dr. Gordon D. Nordstrom, will bring the message. The Farmington church will be charged to cover the cost of meals and lodging.

Reports from the state of Oklahoma show that coal miners there earned from $70 to $83 per week.
