son for the Bulldog "green and white uniforms. The Bulldogs haven't been able to come up with a con-sistent winner this year in varsity competition. That is, until Ron Fedraw's track squad hit the cinder track: Bentley routed Trenton in a Suburban Eight dual meet, 96-27, for its fourth victory in four outings.

The Bulldogs won all three relays and captured 10 individual firsts, shutting out Trenton in five events.

Trenton was awarded the nine points in pole vaulting as Bentley's foam pits are still somewhere in the transporting stage.

Bentley senior Mike McCloskey continued his tor-ried pace, scoring in four events, an accomplishmen he has matched in each of the Bulldogs four duals.

Congratulates 9 Batgirls

Sports Editor:
This organization wishes to congratulate those valiant girls at Franklin High School who have taken up the task of "bat girls" for that school's baseball team.
In times like these when most girls are trying to be employed on construction sites, and others trying to get involved in varsity sports, we bestow our fondest admiration on these girls who are content to simply serve their superior made counterparts.
Hopefully they will set an example for the rest of the fairer sex to follow.

A Curve Ball For Program?

Sports Editor:

Sports Editor:
Before you start throwing mud at the Farmington Little League program. I wish you would get your facts straight.
This is in regards to Tim and Danny Connolly. It is obvious that you got only one side of the story. As a sports editor, you should have been able to see through the story before printing it. As a local man, you should have more interest and general knowledge of the program, which would have enabled you to see through it.

Let's start at the begin-ning. Printed material is giv-en to each family outlining the program, tryout dates, field locations and it is clear field locations and it is clear on the refunds.

Then a parent must sign the boy's registration call. Now you say Tim was hurt on the second day of tryouts. If this is true, where did he get a uniform? They are not issued until teams have been drawn up and usually not until a day or two before the first game.

Next you say he paid $25.

This is the first year registration has been $25 per boy and at that $15 is for raffle tickets, which the boy keeps when the tickets are sold. In 1971, registration was $15 plus $5 for raffle tickets which the boy was to keep.

Now that lakes us to the $120 question. Tim paid $25, but upon selling his tickets gets a refund of $15.

$25 for Tim's uniform, neatly folded and isseless to anyone, and $35 deposit on another brings the lotal to $85. Too much for a suprise to Mr. 2 connolly. They received a letter asking for the return of Tim's uniform and were told at that time, no one in the Connolly. They received a letter asking for the return of Tim's uniform and were told at that time, no one in the family could play ball until it was returned. I personally typed the letter. Have you use tried to field a team of 15 boys with 14 uniforms? I feel sorry for Danny but put the blame where it belongs.

If Tim was Colt age in '71, that puts him at age 17 or 18 now and he should be man enough to face-up to his responsibility. Also this "Social Circle and Closed Circle" has been run into the ground.
