Clarenceville Church To Feature Parade

Real, honest-to-goodness flying saucers will be floating through the air around the Clarenceville Methodist Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, October 4. So if you haven't been one of the untold numbers who have seen them, this is your chance.

White saucers are flying through the air a parade will be in progress on the streets of the community. Floats will be featured by the various departments of the church and prizes will be awarded for the best-decorated auto and bicycle in the parade.

On Sunday, October 5, the Sunday School will observe Rally Day and the opening of the National Sunday School contest with an illustrated talk by Rev. Hubert Karl of the Rural Bible Mission. The public is invited to attend any of the services or festivities of the church.

Mrs. E. W. Stange, who was ill with pleurisy several days of this week, is now somewhat improved. Her granddaughter, Mrs. Richard DeSitter, the former Norma Judd from Detroit, spent the week end with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Galloway from Garden City were dinner guests of their aunt, Mrs. Christina Rehahn of Mayfield Avenue last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita Avenue and Mrs. M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue spent last Friday evening with friends in Plymouth.

Mrs. John Saunders, formerly of Farmington Road but now living in Glendale, California, is spending a month with old friends and neighbors in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ault of Shady Side Avenue were last Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser in Huntington Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter and daughter Mary Margaret from Detroit were visiting with relatives in this community last Monday evening.

Over last week end, E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue was ill with a severe attack of flu.

Mrs. M. E. Ault and her daughter, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, attended the funeral of a friend, Mrs. Wood, in Plymouth last Monday evening.

Miss Wanda Graham of Mayfield Avenue is enjoying a vacation trip during which she is visiting Chicago and points in Canada.

Mrs. Carl Rubley from Bronson, Michigan, spent three days of this week with her aunt, Mrs. Christina Rehahn on Mayfield.

Mrs. Rubley was accompanied by her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. James Patterson and little Miss Carlene Patricia Patterson. On Wednesday afternoon, all four ladies visited the Lee Galloways in Garden City.

Mrs. William Fisher of Mayfield Avenue spent last Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Houtz, on the Ann Arbor Trail near Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts of Mayfield Avenue were last Saturday and Sunday guests of their daughter, Mrs. Robert Padot and family in Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Woods from Inkster and Mrs. Updgrave from Flint were visiting with the Forrest Aults on Hubbard Avenue Wednesday evening.

This week frosts touched all vegetables and flower gardens in the locality.

Terry McMillan from Detroit visited briefly with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Magner, and other relatives on Shady Side Avenue last Sunday afternoon. The young man, who has been ill with polio, appears to be making steady improvement.

Jackie, the nine-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ault, was struck by a car on Gill Road near her home Friday of last week and suffered a broken leg. She will be a patient in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital for at least six weeks.

The Ackerson family formerly resided on Hubbard Avenue and have several relatives in the neighborhood.

At the home of Mrs. V. C. Reddy on Shady Side Avenue last Tuesday evening, a very lovely stork shower was tendered Mrs. Louis Jennings of Norfolk Avenue.

Twenty-five ladies of the neighborhood were present. Mrs. Reddy, Mrs. Cecil Willet and Mrs. Arthur Muir acted as hostesses. Games provided entertainment for the early part of the evening; then came the presentation of gifts, graciously accepted by the honored one, and finally, trays laden with dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Charles Koski of Farmington Road was recently tendered a stork shower by nurses of Sessions Hospital, Northville, where she has been employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grundy of Hubbard Avenue were visiting in their old neighborhood, East Detroit, Friday.
